Four Generations Present For Family Gathering Here

A family gathering on Thanksgiving week-end brought four generations together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dickson here. Their daughter, Mrs. Harold Pethick, and Mr. Pethick came up from Toronto, bringing with them their daughter, Mrs. Steven Deline and her young son Paul. The reunion was a happy one, Mr. and Mrs. Dickson being among the early residents of Haileybury with a large number of descendants and many close friends throughout the district.

Former President of N.O.H.A., Fred Thompson Dies

Well Known Resident of North Country Had His Home in New Liskeard

Fred Thompson, pioneer resident of the North, died in hospital at Kirkland Lake on Sunday morning last. He was 62 years old and had been in ill-health in recent weeks.

A familiar figure in the North Fred Thompson was born in Greenwood, Wis., July 8th, 1887. He came to the North around the turn of the century and associated himself with the firm which has now become the Northern Telephone Company, of which he was superintendent from 1901 until his retirement in 1945.

An excellent organizer, Mr Thompson was a past president of the Northern Ontario Hockey Association; past master of Temiskaming Lodge of the Masonic Order; secretary of the Temiskaming Firemen's Association, and 1949 vice-president of the Ontario Motor League.

He was largely instrumental in organizing the Temiskaming Firemen's Association.

Mr. Thompson was married twice. His first wife, the former Hazel Gladys, predeceased him in 1940.

He is survived by his wife Sheila, and three children: Ted 26; Verdun, 30, and Catherine Marie, 6 years.

A brother, Clarence Thompson of St. Ola, Ont., was up from that place for the funeral.

A private service was held at Perrin's chapel at 2 yesterday afternoon, with the public service under joint auspices of Firemen and Masonic Lodge members, at New Liskeard United Church at 2.30 p.m., conducted by the pastor Rev. W. C. Kitto, and a packed edifice of friends and associates

The Royal Winter Fair in Toronto will open this year on November 15.

LATE DR. MCGOWAN WAS WELL KNOWN IN NORTH; FUNERAL ON SATURDAY

Brief mention was made in these columns last week of the death of Dr. Cyril Hugh McGowan, at North Bay on October 6th. His death came unexpectedly and he is mourned by a wide circle of friends in this district. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. McGowan, prominent residents of Cobalt for many years. Dr. McGowan was a graduate of Queen's University and his first practice was at Kirkland Lake. He later moved to Temagami and in 1940 went to North Bay, where he had a large practice.

Dr. McGowan is survived by his wife and three children, Robert Marney and Judy. His funeral was held on Saturday morning requiem Mass in the Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption and interment in St. Mary's cemetery there.

Social Events Honor Departing Resident

Mrs. Leslie V. Bell, who returned to town last week for a short visit before going to her future home in Montana, was the guest of honor at two events over the week-end. The first was arranged by the Evening branch of St. Paul's W.A., and was held at the rectory, with Rev. and Mrs. Cyril Goodier as host and hostess. On this occasion, Mrs. Bell gave an interesting account of her visit to the General Synod at Halifax.

At the other event, held at the home of Mrs. Cliff Lowery and sponsored by the local group of Graduate Nurses, Mrs. Bell was presented with a china pin and a box of candy. The presentation was made by Mrs. J. T. Leishman group secretary, after Mrs. Gleason, the president, had expressed regret at the departure of Mrs. Bell. Tea was served by the hostess.
