

N.O.H.A. Holds Thirty-First Annual Meeting

Past Presidents Honored at Annual Session Last Saturday in North Bay

Celebrating their 30 years of governing hockey in the territory from Sault Ste Marie to Hearst, the Northern Ontario Hockey Association held their 31st annual meeting in North Bay last Saturday. Past presidents and past secretaries were honored with mementos. Seven past presidents were in attendance and the souvenirs will be forwarded to Percy Mader of Sault Ste Marie; Col. D. M. Brodie of Windsor, formerly of Sudbury; Geo. W. Turk, now of Toronto, formerly of Iroquois Falls, and J. L. Fulton of Timmins. W. A. Thompson, past secretary, North Bay was present and similarly honored, and a like mementos will be sent on to former secretary H. P. Charlton, who now lives in Seattle, Wash. The presentations were made by President Jas. Aspin, whose entire executive was returned to office, following the defeat of Leonard Hamilton of Copper Cliff by Wm. Duncan of Sudbury, in the only contest of the day.

Past presidents present were: Angus D. Campbell, Schumacher, the first president, (formerly of Cobalt; C. O. Baker, North Bay; D. E. Sutherland, Haileybury; D. R. Mitchell, Sudbury; Lorne Miller, Noranda; Dr. H. C. Nash, Sudbury, and immediate past president Max Silverman, Sudbury.

Attending the sessions were President J. J. (Tiny) McFadyen of Galt; 1st vice-president Jack Roxborough, Timcoc; Asst. Secretary Geo. Panter, Gravenhurst, and executive member "Tory" Gregg, Wingham of the O.H.A. Geo. Dudley, treasurer, secretary manager of the C.A.H.A., and J. Christie, secretary of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

A resolution which was intended to make over-age juveniles eligible only to closest junior team in the municipality in which they performed as juveniles rather than as free agents, was defeated solidly. Other than players who are drafted these players going to pro-sponsored teams shall have money paid for their release sent to the juvenile clubs they played with prior to becoming over-age.

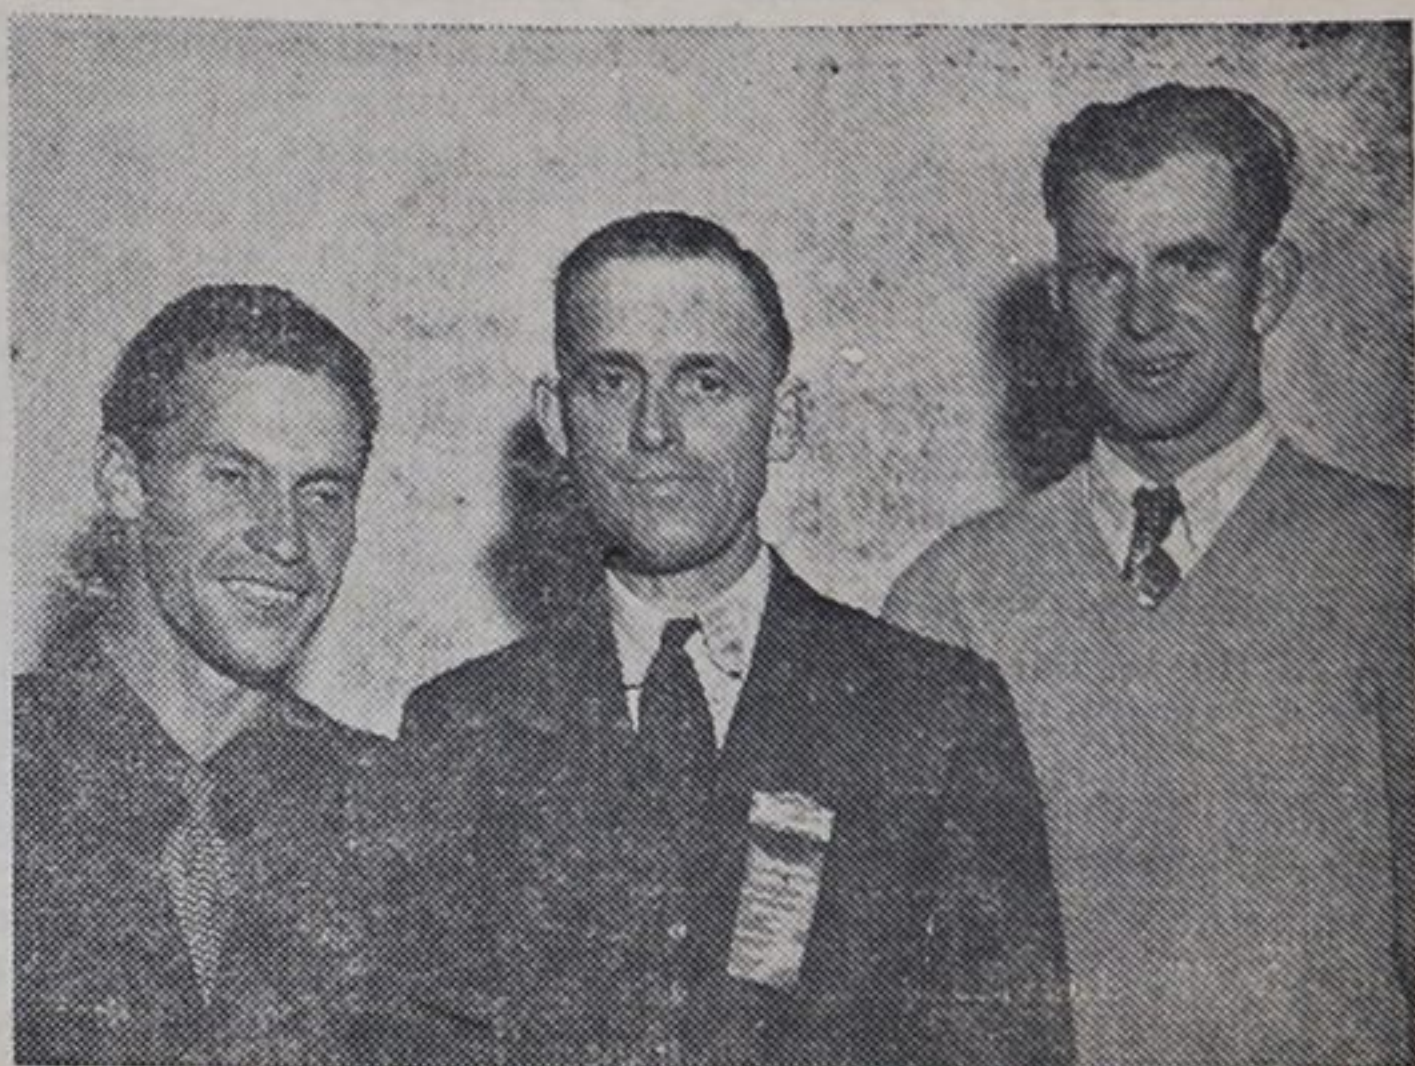

Two new series will be played in NOHA territory this season. Intermediate "B" teams may be entered by centres under 5,000 population, and such centres may also enter Juvenile "B". Towns over 5,000 must enter Intermediate "A" or higher before becoming eligible for "B" category.

The association also intend to assist Midget teams financially, so that play-offs may be held, and a committee composed of Carl Palangio of North Bay and Jack Wild of Swastika was appointed to study ways and means.

Senior and Junior "A" series, Intermediate "A" and "B", Junior "B" and Juvenile "A" and "B" are all to be included in competition for clubs eligible this season.

Toronto Man Purchases Ronnoco Hotel, Temagami

The Ronnoco Hotel, Temagami, a landmark of the summer resort for many years, has been sold by the Ontario Northland Railway to H. Shannon of Toronto. Formerly owned by the late Dan O'Connor, the hotel was operated for many years by the late Arthur Stevens and was purchased by the O.N.R. some years ago. The building stands on a prominent site overlooking Lake Temagami and has been a favorite stopping place for hundreds of visitors to the resort.

The new owner plans some alterations and remodeling in the near future, and Gordon B. Stevens will be manager of the establishment.

An attempt was made to rob the Bank of Nova Scotia in New Liskeard on Sunday by drilling into the vault from the basement, but the would-be thieves were apparently scored off before they could gain entry.

NOTES OF THE NORTH

RECORD POTATO CROP

Dave Hackett tops local potato growers this year with the high official yield of 762 bushels per acre. High for the province last year was 742 so that the Cochrane man is off to a good start in winning the provincial crown.

CRUSADE ON COMICS

Hundreds of comic books, described as unfit reading matter for school children by the St. Paul Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and Catholic Youth Council, were burned Tuesday afternoon by more than 200 pupils of Coniston separate school in the school yard.

Rev. J. L. Fortin, assistant priest of Our Lady of Mercy Church, Coniston, started the drive about a week ago.

Listed as acceptable comics are 122 children's books and 16 other releases for teen-agers.

Father Fortin said the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of Coniston will assist in carrying out the campaign against the purchase and distribution of comic books. —Sudbury Star.

BROKE SAFETY RULE

McIntyre miner Lionel Beaulne, Tuesday was fined $10 when he pleaded guilty in magistrate's court to drilling a drift face without first washing it down.

Mines inspector E. B. Weir testified he examined the drift face two days after the complaint

WATCH THE BIKES

Some bicycling youngsters around town are liable to find their vehicles missing one of these days when they emerge from a store if they left them cluttering up the sidewalk.

Constable Lawley of the local provincial police told The Speaker this week that he has issued his last warning to the cyclists, and that henceforth he will pick up the offending machines and take them to the police office, where the owners will have to go to redeem them.—The Temiskaming Speaker.

PRODUCE ASBESTOS

The new Johns-Manville asbestos mine at Munro will begin operating in the spring, employing between 100 and 125 men, and milling from 100 to 200 tons of ore per hour, George K. Foster vice-president and mines manager of the Canadian Johns-Manville Co. Ltd., told members of the Kirkland District Branch of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy meeting here last night.

The mill will take 100 tons of ore per hour, but can be speeded up to double that rate. Mr. Foster pointed out that in construct-

NATURE UNSPOILED

YOURS TO ENJOY

The SHORT-EARED OWL is an unusual bird of prey. Although a true owl, he hunts by daylight, often with flocks of his fellows. He is a most efficient mouse and pest destroyer, and deserves your protection. Watch for him at this season, flying low over marshy fields and bogs.

BECOMES SEMI-WEEKLY

An era in newspaper publishing in the twin cities will come to an end on the 8th of next month when the Rouyn-Noranda Press, the pioneer newspaper in Northwestern Quebec, forsakes the weekly field and starts publishing twice a week. Starting Nov. 8th this newspaper will be published every Tuesday and Friday.

The Rouyn-Noranda Press was born in March, 1933, when the first edition of this paper hit the streets. The newspaper is now sixteen years old and is the oldest paper of continuous service in Northwestern Quebec. The first editor was George B. Curran.—Rouyn-Noranda Press.
