WEDDING BELLS

PARENT-PROULX

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized in Holy Cross Church here on Thursday morning last, June 29th, when Miss Francoise Proulx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. E. Proulx, became the bride of Leo Parent, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Parent of Cobalt. The church was beautifully decorated with June flowers and the doubling ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Lafleur, Holy Cross Parish priest.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was unattended. She wore a graceful wedding gown of white organdy, made in three-quarter length. Her veil was shoulder length and was caught with flowers, and she carried a bridal bouquet of roses. The ushers at the ceremony were Marcel and Claud Proulx, twin brothers of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about 100 guests. Mrs. Proulx, the bride's mother, received in a gown of grey print, with black and white accessories, and Mrs. Parent, the bridegroom's mother, wore navy blue gown with blue accessories. Later the bridal couple left on a honeymoon trip by motor, the bride wearing a turquoise summer suit with fawn topcoat and navy blue accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Parent will make their home in Cobalt.

Shattered Marriages Can Be Saved!

John A. O'Brien, University of Notre Dame professor, has discovered a formula he believes can save many marriages from failure! Learn how harsh words, more than harsh deeds, can wreck marriages. Read "Marriage for Keeps" in The American Weekly, great magazine with this Sunday's (July 9) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.
