OBITUARY

Norah Elizabeth Byrne Wiley

Norah Elizabeth Wiley, wife of Douglas R. Wiley of 445 Gordon Avenue, Peterborough, died in St. Joseph's Hospital in that city on Tuesday, May 29th after a prolonged illness. She was 30 years of age.

Born in Haileybury and christened Norah Elizabeth, she was the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Byrne, 220 Dunvegan Road, Toronto. She leaves her husband and three children, Douglas Joseph, 4, Elizabeth Anne, 2, and Donald Gerard, aged two months. As well as her parents she also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Heffernan (Mary) of Guelph, Mrs. Helen Conlin of Toronto and Miss Dorothy Byrne of New York city, and three brothers, J. C. Byrne of Toronto, Norman W., of Edmonton and Robert H., of Kirkland Lake.

Norah attended St. Mary's Academy, Haileybury, and graduated from Loretto Abbey, Armour Heights, Toronto, later attending the Ontario College of Arts. She was a talented artist.

Norah had many friends both in her home city and Peterborough, where she was widely admired as a gracious and charming hostess. She was a member of St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough and was on the auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital in that city.

The body rested at the family residence until Thursday morning and was taken to St. Peter's Cathedral where requiem Mass was sung by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Butler. Following the Mass the body was taken to the home of her parents at 220 Dunvegan Road, Toronto, where it rested until Saturday Morning, thence to Holy Rosary Church, where a solemn requiem Mass was sung by pastor, Rev. Fr. Thomas MacDonald. Interment was in Amount Hope Cemetery, Toronto.

Don Fairbairn to Review Work of Weekly Editors

CBC coverage of the annual meeting of the Ontario-Quebec Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association—to be held in Montreal June 7, 8, 9—will include a special Trans-Canada network broadcast from 9.45-10.00 a.m. on Sunday, June 10th, with Don Fairbairn reviewing the work of the convention and interviewing some of the weekly editors.

A few minutes after this special show (that is, starting at 10.03 a.m.) Don will give his regular broadcast of Neighborly News from the Ontario and Quebec Weeklies, from the CBC's Montreal studios.

Will Receive Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

Clyve Runnalls, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Runnalls of Haileybury receives the degree of Doctor of Philosophy on Friday, June 8th, at the University of Toronto.

During the past two years he has been doing research on titanium on Cornica and Wallberg Fellowship.

Dr. and Mrs. Runnalls and son, David, will make their home in Deep River. Dr. Runnalls has accepted a position with the National Research Council and will be employed at their Chalk River atomic plant.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Runnalls are in Toronto attending the graduation exercises.

A new curling rink would add greatly to the attractions of this community, and the club's drive for the sale of shares is proceeding.

WEDDING BELLS

WEDDELL-FLEMING

A pretty double-ring wedding took place in St. Pauls Church here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Jean Margaret Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Fleming, became the bride of Donald Warren Weddell son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weddell of Osoyoos, B.C., and a graduate of the Provincial Institute of Mining here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Cyril Goodier; Mrs. S. Atkinson, organist of the church, played the wedding music and Miss Jo-Anne Elton sang "Because".

The pretty blonde bride wore a dress of white net, with bodice of lace, a tulle veil, and carried a shower bouquet of red roses. She was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honor was Miss Ruth McDonald, who wore yellow taffeta, with halo hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Soucie, wearing green taffeta, with short cape and a halo of nylon net, and Miss Joan Thorne, who wore mauve taffeta with nylon cape and halo. The junior bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Beverley, who was gowned in pink taffeta with nylon net cape, gloves and halo. All bridesmaids carried bouquets of a variety of flowers in pastel shades. Two little flower girls, Jacqueline and Gloria Jean Adams, dressed in blue taffeta with bonnets to match, carried crocheted baskets of garden flowers.

The bridegroom was supported by a friend of long standing, Danny Goodwin, and the ushers were Robert Fleming, brother of the bride; Wm. Bagshaw and Robert Hannah.

At the reception held in the bride's home and attended by the elder guests, Mrs. Fleming, mother of the bride, wore a dress of navy sheer and a corsage of talisman roses. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Phil Maloney of Matachewan, and Mrs. Leslie Fleming of North Bay, aunt of the bride. Also assisting were Miss Rita Humphreys, Mrs. Weiss and Mrs. K. Trowhill. In the evening a reception and dance were held in the Legion hall for the wedding party and their younger guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Weddell left later for Toronto, from where they expected to travel by air to Nicaragua, in Central America, where Mr. Weddell is employed by a mining company. For travelling, Mrs. Weddell wore a suit of navy blue gabardine with pink hat and accessories.
