WEDDING BELLS COUSINS—JOHNSON

Haileybury United Church manse was the scene of the wedding recently of Mildred Maria Johnson, and William Bruce Cousins, the Rev. H. C. Matier officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson Haileybury, and the bridegroom the son of A. C. Cousins, and the late Mrs. Cousins, Carberry, Man.

Beautiful white tulle wedding gown was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown fashioned with fitted bodice, buttoned to the waist and dolman sleeves. Her skirt was fully gathered, and she wore matching hat and gloves. Yellow carnations, blue cornflowers and stephanotis formed the nosegay she carried.

Mrs. Willard Hopkins, the bride's attendant, wore pink nylon marquisette with matching hat and mitts. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, delphiniums and sweet peas.

Phillip Willer of Barrie was best man.

A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony, when the bride's mother received guests wearing navy and white crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Phillip Willer, also received. She wore a hat of white straw with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride wore a suit of powdered blue with white straw hat and white accessories for a honeymoon trip to Ottawa. On their return the couple will live in Sudbury.

HOLLANDS-HURST - GEORGE

A mauve and white color theme was carried throughout Holy Name Church, Kirkland Lake on Saturday morning last for the wedding of Anna Mae George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. George, Kirkland Lake, to Mr. Philip Hollands-Hurst, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollands-Hurst of Haileybury.

Given in marriage by here father, the lovely bride was gowned in rice white organdy over taffeta. Mrs. Robert Armstrong, as matron of honor, wore an orchid organdy gown over orchid taffeta.

As bridesmaid, Miss Sally Hurst was frocked in orchid organdy over periwinkle blue taffeta.

Basil Boisvert acted as groomsman, and Vic and Gerry George ushered the wedding guests.

A reception was held in the Curling Club rooms following the ceremony. Mrs. eGorge received and was assisted by the groom's aunt, Mrs. P. M. Fleming, Haileybury. For a honeymoon trip to Quebec City and the Laurentians, the bride chose a beige suit with emerald green accessories. On their return the newly wed couple will reside in Orillia.

Every man, woman and child in Canada will this year pay about $400 in taxes, about $300 of which ill go to Ottawa.
