

Weather Figures Show Month July Cool and Damp

Rainfall for Month Slightly More Than Average; Temperature 1.9 Degrees Less

The weather for the month of July was fairly cool and dull and was much like last year; rain was above average, although the temperature did register 85 on the 6th, while the coolest day was on the 17th. Maybe we will have a nice fall. Anyway, here are the official figures:

Rainfall was 2.84" in 1951, compared to 1.54 in 1950, and 2.25 over the long period from 1894.

Average daily mean temperature in 1951 was 64.1, compared to 63.9 in 1950 and 66 for the long period.

Minimum temperatures for the month this year was 85.0 as noted above on the 6th; last years' being 85.6, and the highest over the extended period was 102.0 in the year 1921.

Minimum temperatures for the month of July this year was 45.8 on the 17th while it dropped down to 42.6 in 1950, and actually hit 35.8 in 1904.

Maximum daily range of temperature was 31.4 degrees on the 28th of last month, and an almost identical figure last year, being 31.0.

The minimum daily range last month was 3.0 on the 4th, and in 1952 there was an 8-degree minimum.

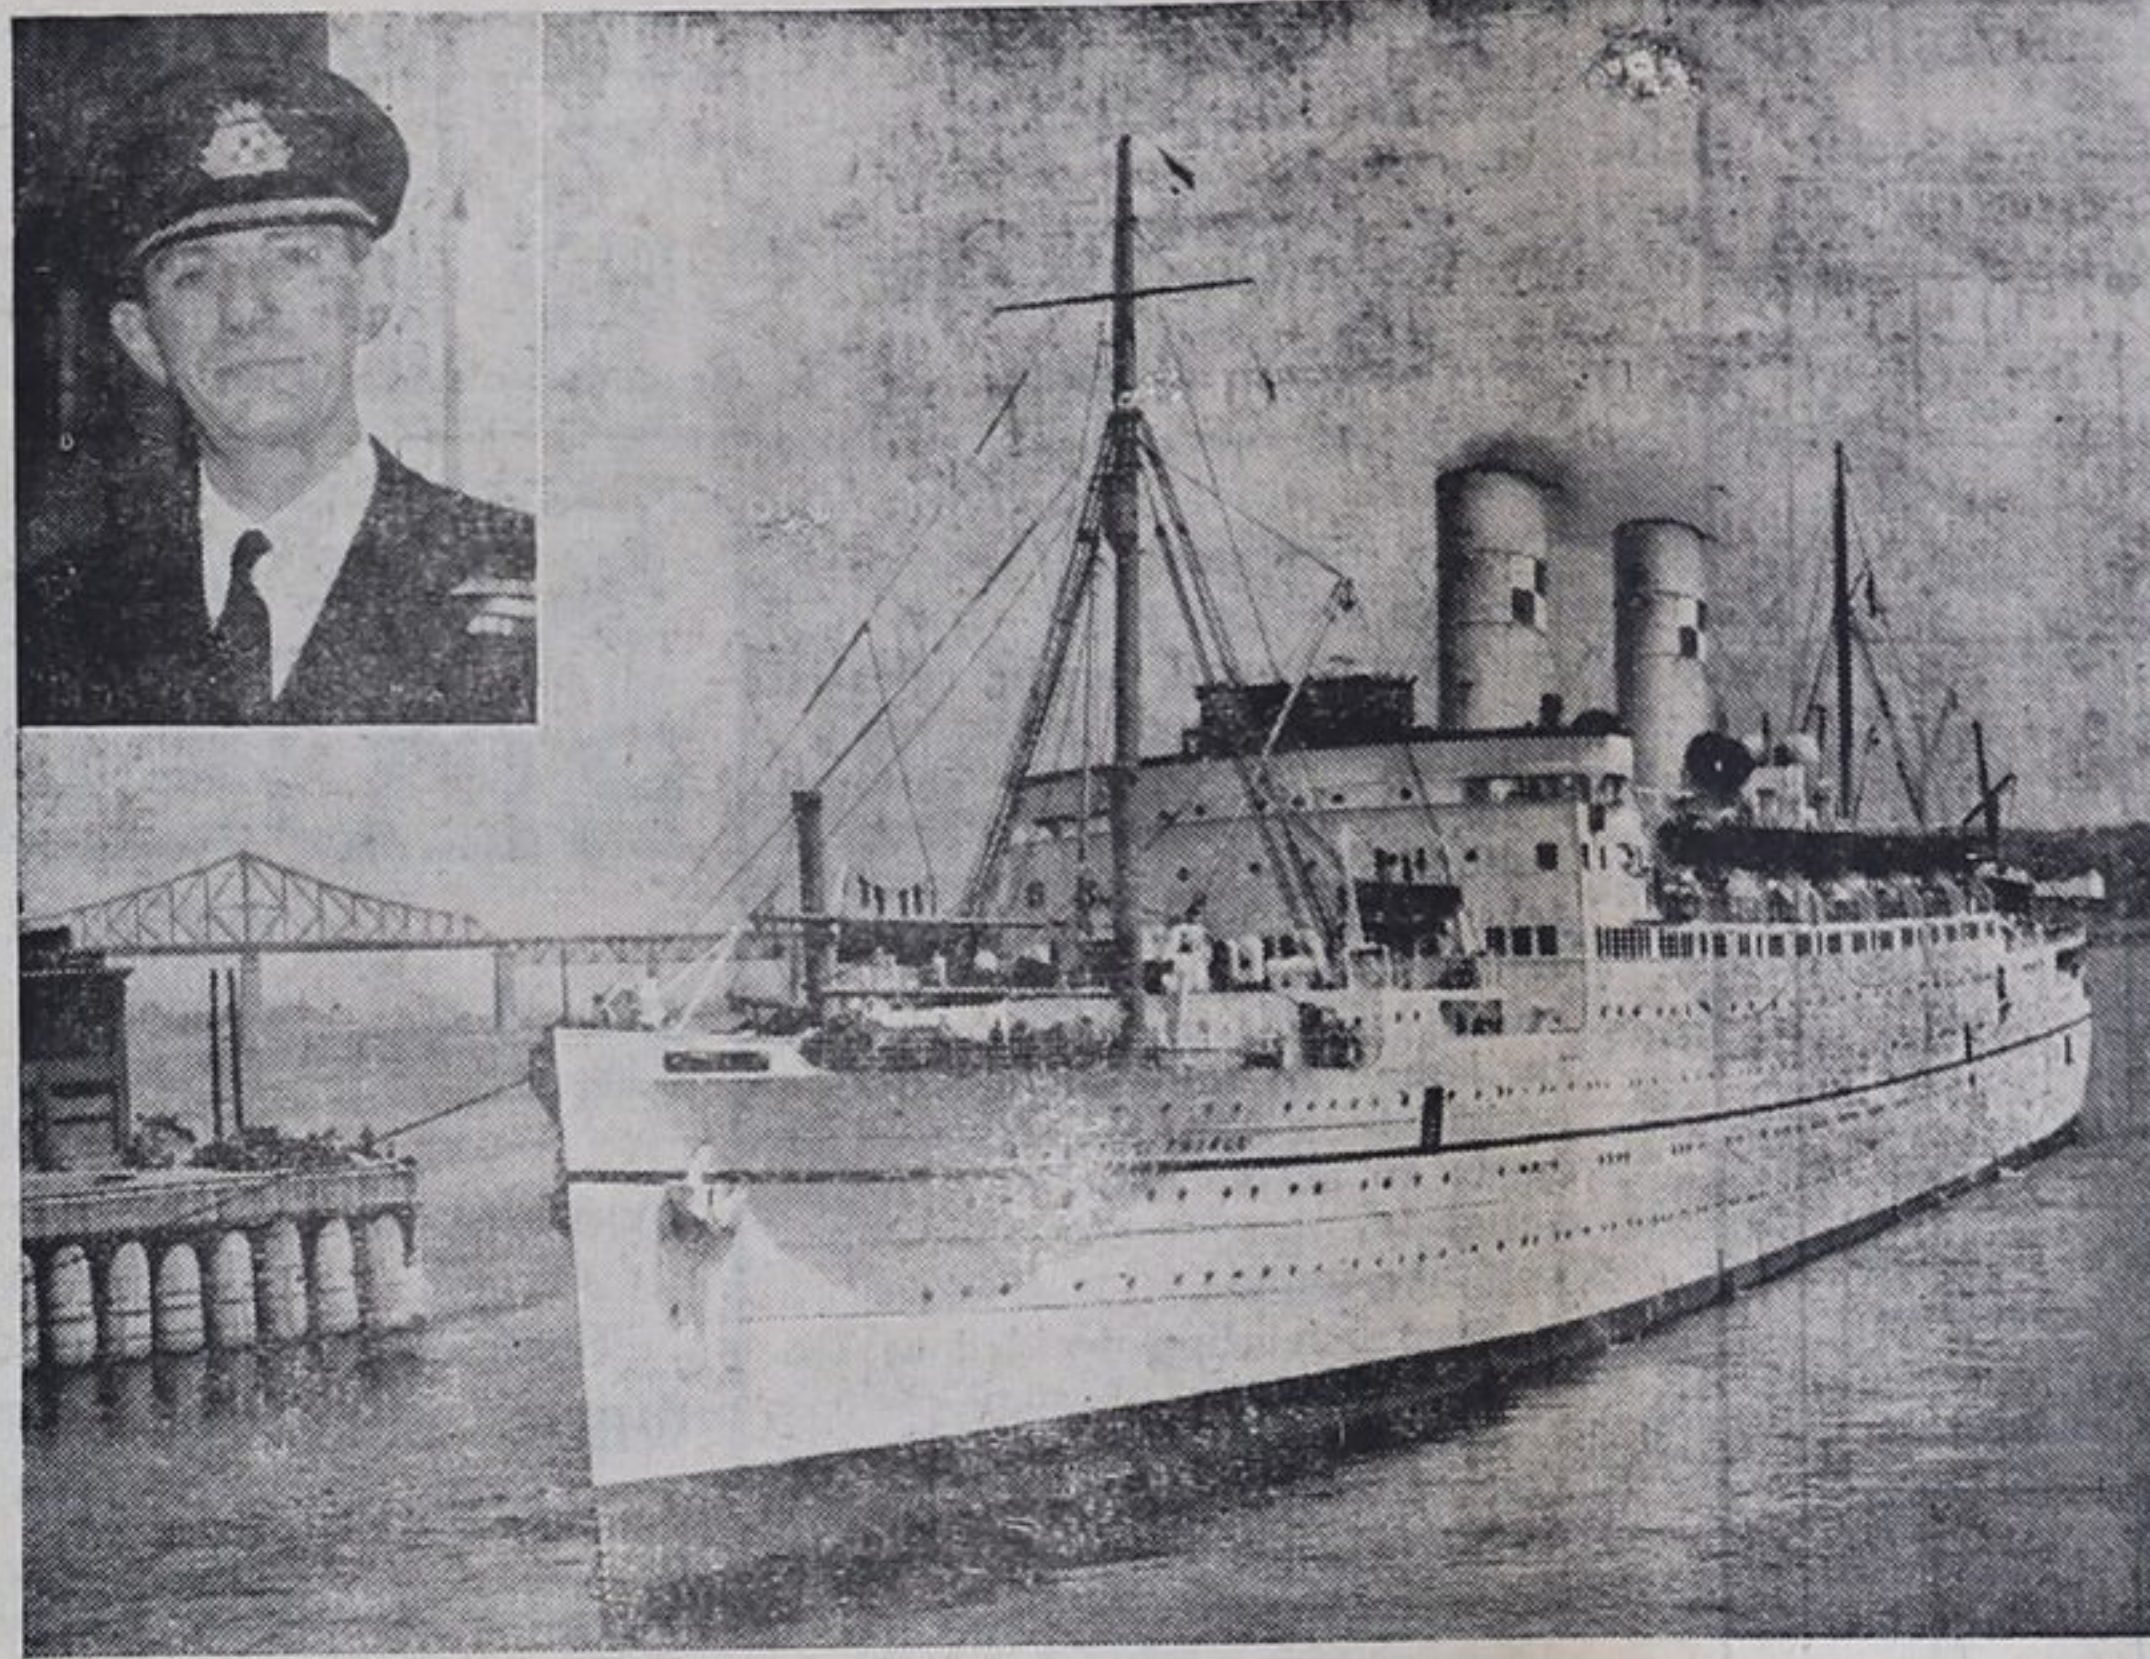

TREE FIRE DOUSED BY FORESTRY MEN FROM MOTORBOAT

The following appeared in the North Bay Nugget as a despatch from Lady Evelyn Lake:

"How to extinguish a forest fire from a boat was demonstrated here recently.

Following a severe lightning storm, a boat put out from the department of lands and forests headquarters on the lake (about 20 air miles west of Latchford) for the usual patrol. A smoke was seen along the north shore of Leo township, and when the boat drew closer, it was seen that a large tree, long dry, was smoking freely.

Like many trees around the shore line, this one was surrounded by water. The boat ran alongside, and the rangers, without leaving their seats, extinguished the fire.

TO CARRY ROYAL COUPLE—The 20,000-ton Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France, in regular service between Liverpool, England, and Montreal, has been chosen to carry the Princess Elizabeth and Duke of Edinburgh to Canada for their tour of this country. Inset shows Captain B. B. Grant, a veteran of 32 years' experience with Canadian Pacific Steamships, who holds the rank of Commodore in the Royal Navy Reserve, and who will be in command of the vessel on her historic voyage. Also to be aboard the ship on the trip are several company officers and men who attended King George and Queen Elizabeth on the Empress of Britain when they returned to the United Kingdom following their tour of Canada in 1939. The Empress will sail from Liverpool with the Royal Couple September 25th.

Even surrounded by water as the tree was, sparks could have been blown by the wind into nearby brush on shore, resulting in a genuine forest fire, said District Forester Frank Sider. The incident, he noted, created a "new technique" in forest fire fighting.
