"No Indians Yet"

One evening last week, some acquaintances went to Temagami for dinner at a hotel, dressed in the usual summer holiday garb of slacks and sport jackets. They were interested when two beautifully dressed women in latest style evening dresses came into the dining room, and one was heard to remark to the other one in a very disappointed voice: "I have been here two weeks and haven't seen an Indian yet."

They apparently expected to see them dressed in the movie version of paint and feathers. It's too bad to disappoint them and some Temagami residents should wear full regalia, especially during the summer months. They could pick up some "pin money" posing for pictures for camera enthusiasts, and it's easy work if you can get it. They do it in British Columbia.

Nothing to Do? Bored?

George Matthew Adams has said: "People who never read a book have imprisoned themselves and need to be let out from their confinement. They will never know the full joy of life until they do." Why not drop into the library and choose a book to suit your mood. There is a wide choice of recent fiction, from light romance to historical novels of present-day and earlier periods.

Perhaps you have a yen to travel, but circumstances do not permit. With a good travel-book you may range all over the world from Canadian provinces such as "Ontario in Your Car"; "This is New Brunswick"; "Manitoba Roundabout" and others, to a long, interesting journey with Lowell Thomas and his son to Tibet, called "Out of This World". You will thrill to travel with Heyerdahl and his companions on a primitive raft across the South Seas. Ask for "Kon-Tiki Expedition" Or share the suspense and excitement with some prisoners-of-war planning and accomplishing their escapes from concentration camps during World War II.

Whether you are busy, bored or lonely, what can be more satisfying than to take up a good book and feed both mind and spirit? One is never lonely when one has a friendly book.

Dont' Emote

People who suffer from high blood pressure should avoid emotional upsets and a too strenuous way of life. Overeating, which can cause overweight, is one of the "Dont's". The doctors' instructions as to diet, exercise and rest should be followed carefully.
