Curlers To Close Season at Club on Saturday Night

The Ladies' Curling Club met in the Curling Club on Thursday evening last. The president, Mrs. N. J. McAulay presided over a good attendance.

A discussion on the closing of the season and presentation of prizes resulted in a decision to join with the Men's Club and have a social evening on Saturday April 19th in the club rooms, instead of the usual banquet of former years in Hotel Haileybury.

A motion was passed to turn $250.00 over to the Club to increase the building fund.

The ladies planned a draw on a purse and a wallet with twenty-five dollars in each. Tickets will be sold during the summer months and proceeds will go to the building fund.

There is a lot of hard work ahead to have the ice in better condition for curling and a lot remains to be done to the Club Rooms. This should be looked upon not just as a curling club but as a community project and everyone is asked to put forth their total effort in any venture which is undertaken to assist the Club.

The president thanked everyone for their co-operation and help throughout the year.

A giant Douglas fir tree recently felled on Vancouver Island for lumber had a circumference of 15 feet, was 1,106 years old, and must have been a large tree when the Magna Carta was signed in 1215.

CHURCHES FILLED ON EASTER SUNDAY

People of every denomination attended their churches on Easter Sunday to relive once again the sadness and the astounding joy of the Easter message. Attendance at all churches was unusually high.

Spring flowers beautified the altars. In the Anglican Church, flowers were placed in memory of Mrs. G. H. Hayward, Mrs. Wm. Cooper, Mr. J. T. Leishman and Mr. Paul Cobbold and his wife Mrs. Hilda Caldwell placed flowers in the United Church in memory of her mother.

The anthem "Why Seek Ye the Living Dead?" was sung by the Anglican choir; Miss G. Speicher sang a solo and joined with Miss M. Briden in a duet. In the United Church the young voices of the Junior Choir were heard from the gallery and the Senior Choir rendered "This is the Day" the Day".

Carol Lane to Address Tri-Town Ladies

The Business and Professional Women's Club held their monthly meeting in the Blue Room of Hotel Haileybury on Thursday last, at which officers for the coming year were elected.

The new president is Marjorie Munroe; recording secretary, Helen Fournier; corresponding secretary, Mary Amm; and treasurer, Claire Cotnam.

Carol Lane, travel expert, will address members of the club on April 24th in the Community hall New Liskeard, at 6.30 p.m.

In her talk, "Travel—a Canadian Heritage", Miss Lane, Women's Travel Director of the Shell Oil Company of Canada, will stress the new meaning of travel in these times.

This dinner meeting is open to other than Club members and anyone desiring to attend may make reservations, not later than April 21, with any member of the Club or calling Dorothy Stevenson, Phone 111 or 260, New Liskeard.

Kinsmen Listen t56-L — Kinsmen heard one of the most outstanding addresses in several years at their dinner meeting in Cobalt this week when one of their own members, Len Cunningham told them of his experiences during the three years he spent in Peru with the Cerro de Pasco Copper Corporation. His talk was illustrated with movies which he had taken himself of the countryside and his listeners were particularly interested in his talk and pictures of the ruins of the Inca civilization and of the mines. No aspect was overlooked and the everyday life of both foreigners and natives received an attentive hearing and Kinsmen left the meeting feeling that it had been exceptionally worth while.

Mrs. Lowery Honored

The I.O.D.E. met at the home of Mrs. J. Grant with the First Vice-Regent, Mrs. J. Lecky, acting in the absence of the Regent Mrs. N. D. McIsaac.

A letter of thanks from Miss Fortier, Recreational Director of the Hospital was read, expressing Miss Fortier's gratitude for the $50.00 which the Chapter had donated for her work.

A surprise gift and birthday cake were presented to Mrs. W. R. Lowery, who reached her seventy-fifth birthday this month
