WEDDING BELLS

Hutchison—Pollock

Yellow roses and white peonies formed the setting for the marriage in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Haileybury, of Dorothy Margaret Cordelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hutchison of Haileybury to Mr. Robert Alexander Pollock, son of Mrs. M. Pollock and the late Robert Pollock of Swastika. The Rev. Canon Goodier officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta, made with a fitted bodice and full skirt with lace jacket with lily point sleeves. A matching headpiece held her shoulder veil and she wore a pearl studded brooch belonging to her mother. She carried a white Bible with an orchid and streamers of lily of the valley.

The bride's sister Miss Betty Hutchison, was her only attendant wearing an ankle length gown of yellow net over taffeta with a yellow bolero and matching wide brimmed crownless net hat. Yellow net wrist length mittens and yellow satin shoes completed the ensemble.

Mr. John Pollock was best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Donald Ewen of Toronto and Mr. Alexander Briden of Haileybury.

After the wedding, seventy-five guests were received at the Haileybury Golf Club. A handmade lace cloth covered the bride's table centred with a three-tiered cake. Peonies and roses completed the setting.

Mrs. Hutchison received in a navy blue silk dress styled with a bolero jacket. She wore matching accessories with a pearl necklace and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother received in a navy blue sheer with matching accessories.

The bride and groom left for Southern Ontario, the bride travelling in a navy blue and white taffeta dress with a navy blue corded silk bolero and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids and carried a grey English wool fitted coat.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Frances Little and Miss Margaret Hay of Edmonton, Mrs. J. Naylor and her two daughters, Flora Jane and Patricia of Arvida, Quebec, Mrs. T. C. Fawcett her daughter, Carol and son, Peter of Noranda, Mr. S. P. MacDonald, Mr. D. Lomax and Mr. Graham Nairn of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hutchison of Kemble Ontario, Mrs. J. McMillan of Owen Sound, Mrs. W. Earheart of Shallow Lake, Ontario, Miss Marion MacMillan of Detroit, and Mrs. E. Skinner, of Wiarton, Ont.

Psychologist Marynia Farnham warns that separation of a child from his mother may cause long-lasting fears. In this coming Sunday's (July 6) issue of the New Color Gravure American Weekly, exclusively with The Detroit Sunday Times, she outlines rules mothers should follow when leaving their children for a prolonged time. Get Sunday's Detroit Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Raney and children, Bill and Judy, of Kerr-Addison, Virginiatown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. D. Pringle for the holiday week-end.

Several carloads of Bingo fans motored to Kirkland Lake last week to attend the monster bingo in aid of unorganized sport. We regret that no Haileybury players got into the big money.

The Sunday School staff of the United Church held a tea at the Golf Club last week in honor of four of their staff who will not be here in the fall—Miss M. Tulloch, Mrs. D. Nicolson, Mrs. G. Eby and Miss C. Wiseman.
