movie goes said of the Academy Award Winner — "Terrible" — "Depressing" — "Grim" and so it goes. One irate victim even condemned The Haileyburian for running a big advertisement and leading her astray. Even the theatre manager said that in all his years of looking at films, this one was the most depressing. The fact remains, however, that here is a picture of high dramatic value which will not soon be equalled.

That Miss Marjorie Beasley was in charge of the Tag Day for the Blind and Mrs. R. D. Cumming, chairman of the Temiskaming Advisory Board would like to thank Marjorie and her cohorts for the fine work they did.

That Florence street has been graded and it looks like a good job. All that remains to be done is a fine coat sometime. It's a study in human nature too—months of talk and one day of action.

That you may have thought we had unusually hot weather last week, but Mr. Reavell says the thermometer didn't go particularly high nor was any record set. Summer always has its last kick in September.

That displays at Fairs by the Department of Lands and Forests always draw a great deal of attention and admiration, but at the New Liskeard Fair, the Forestry exhibit of two bears, a pair of pheasants and a beaver locked up in cages on a hot night, drew a lot of adverse criticism. Practice what you preach!

Hill-Clark-Francis Annual Golf Tourney

Where do your children bank?

Many of our customers are youngsters—thrift-minded and conscientious—who visit BNS branch offices regularly to make savings deposits. We've always tried to make a special effort to serve these young Canadians who are investing in their own and Canada's future.

When your children start saving with BNS, it's the beginning of a lifetime partnership. And you will be surprised at how quickly this partnership grows. Not only does regular saving lead to a secure future, but the simple banking principles learned are also of value.

Next time you visit the bank, bring the young members of your family with you. Our staff will be glad to greet them and help them start a savings account.

Your BNS Manager is a good man to know. In Haileybury he is H. Brown

When days are hot and sticky, there's nothing like a quick cooling dip in one of the many swimming pools in and around the city. Take a minute and cool off... and you'll be ready to work again, refreshed.

That Claire and Maurice McNulty have taken over the Temagami Country Club, eight miles south of Temagami. Meals will be served at their tourist resort which will be good news on a Sunday drive. Presently, they are busy re-organizing and renovating.

That Mr. H. G. Pickard was the judge of the flower show at the New Liskeard Fall Fair. Displays were above average, according to Mr. Pickard.

That Mrs. V. St. Louis came home from her sister's farm in Renfrew County with a pumpkin which measures 40" around. How about it, kids, for a Jack o' Lantern for Hallowe'en?

That the gentleman who got the first word of the Boyd et al capture told his friends that they were caught in a barn because "some pig squealed".

That the Tag Day for the Blind was very successful — proceeds from tagging amounted to $85.45. If you have not already done so, please send your donation by mail to the manager of the Bank (Imperial) in New Liskeard and do your part to maintain the high standing of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind which is considered to be the finest institution of its kind in the world.

That seven out of ten Haileyburians wished they had stayed home on Monday and Tuesday nights instead of catching "The Streetcar" at the Strand. Looking for relief from tension over the Boyd escape and filling the coal bin for the winter season,
