Beautiful Gift From Japan For Haileybury Mother

En route from a year's service in Korea, William Toms, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Toms spent a few days in Japan prior to receiving his sailing orders. While there he sent his mother a beautiful Japanese doll which arrived this week.

The order was placed with the Kagamijiski Company and the fragile replica of a Japanese lady came through the trip without a telling mark.

The delicate china face is hand-painted and her lustrous black hair is held in place in typical Japanese fashion with small yellow combs and pins. The foot-high figure is gowned in rich robes of brilliant colors—the exacting detail of the whole serve to prove once again that the Japanese are masters at this type of work.

Mrs. Toms is planning to give the lady a prominent place in her living room.
