Haileybury Scouts Hold Dance in High School

By David Tuer
On Friday evening the Haileybury Boy Scouts held their first dance in the High School. It started off with each Scout introducing himself and then his guest.

A great many interesting games were played. First was the Orange game in which the winners received candy suckers. The next game played was the spot dance. In this game the winners of the special prizes were Barbara and Charles Camsell. After the spot dance the Scouts chose partners and did some square dancing. For the next dance the Scouts and their guests were given pieces of paper pictures which had to be matched up for partners.

Another interesting game was the walking game. Special prizes again were given to the winners, who were Carol Jenkins and David Tuer. After the walking game was the shoe mix-up contest from which the Raven patrol won. This was probably the most exciting game of the evening. The most skilful game of the evening was the letter game which the Wolf patrol won.

The two games which remained were charades and the final game in which the music would stop suddenly and any couple with a certain garment or color were disqualified. Carol McNaught and Reg. McIntyre won the special prizes.

Much thanks is given to Mr. and Mrs. Nauss, Mrs. Neelands, Mrs. Bond and Buz Hayward, who made this dance possible.

After the games lunch consisting of soft drinks, cookies, cake and ice cream was then served and was appreciated by all. Thus drew to a close a very enjoyable evening.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all those friends, relatives and neighbors for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy extended to us during our recent sad bereavement.

Court of Revision

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF COLEMAN

Notice is hereby given that a Court of Revision will be held in the Township Council Chambers, Cobalt, Ontario, on Friday, November 28, 1952, at the hour of 11.45 o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, to hear and determine complaints and appeals against the assessment roll of the Municipality for the year 1952.

Dated at Cobalt Ontario, this Seventeenth day of November, 1952.

ALMA FERRIS, Deputy Clerk

Please Mr. Glover

Gunman, policeman, cowboy, guard? No it's sauve, mellow-voiced Elwood Glover whose day-to-day "artillery" consists mainly of the polished phrase and well rounded consonant. It just happens that Elwood, when he's not engaged in talking to his national radio audience on his daily "Musical Kitchen" network program, is a gun collector of note. Here he appraises the relative merits of a six-shooter specimen as a possible addition to his well stocked collection.

YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

That there is loads of parking room at the Ski Club. So have no fears about what to do with your car on Friday night

That the automatic system at the pump house has been in operation since October 15th. Each morning the reservoir is full instead of the low ebb of the good old days. Mayor Cooke hasn't received one single blast about no water pressure since the change-over.

That there are twenty-nine shopping days until Christmas. Get into the wonderful last minute panic by waiting.

WEDDING BELLS

FLEURY—ST. CYR

Tall standards of multi-colored flowers and candles formed the set setting in Our Lady of Sacred Heart Church, North Cobalt on Saturday, November 8th for the marriage of Rolande St. Cyr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond St. Cyr to Mr. Leonard Fleury, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fleury of North Cobalt.

Rev. Father C. Perron officiated at the ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Roy Haquard of New Liskeard and a group of senior girls and school children sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net over chantilly lace. Her finger-tip veil was caught up to a pleated net cap encrusted with pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and wore a wrist watch, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honour, Miss Aline Fleury chose a frock of mauve velveteen and matching hat finished with a half veil. She carried a nosegay of yellow 'mums. The bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Fleury and Miss Theresa Lanthier. They wore pink and blue velveteen with matching hats. Nosegays of pink 'mums completed the picture.

The bride's sister, Denise St. Cyr, was flower girl. She wore yellow organdy and carried a nosegay of mauve and white 'mums.

Mr. Claude St. Cyr was the best man and the ushers were Mr. Basil Fleury Raymond St. Cyr and Wilfred Stubinski.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the North Cobalt public school auditorium. The brides' mother received in a gown of wine velvet and wore a green velvet hat. The groom's mother chose a grey gown trimmed with blue velvet, with a matching hat. Both wore corsages of pink 'mums. The happy couple will live in North Cobalt.

A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong, which is but saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday. —Pope

THE HOT OBOIST

Perry Bauman has a good reason to feel hot, after a rehearsal session with the newly-formed CBC National Symphony. Standing by, ready to wipe the oboist's brow is french horn player Eugene Rettich. It takes many hours of hard work to produce a successful concert, which can be heard on the Trans-Canada network Monday eves.

Doctors From Across Canada Attend Course

Dr. J. Genyk joined one hundred doctors from all over Canada last month in Toronto where they attended a course at the Weston Sanatorium.

The entire week was devoted to the study of all phases of T.B. work and lectures were heard from outstanding professors at the University of Toronto and doctors from New York, Hamilton and Weston Sanatorium.

Canadian defence expenditure currently represents 45 per cent of the Federal budget.

St. Paul's W. A. Hold Successful Bazaar

The W.A. of St. Paul's Church held their annual bazaar on Saturday, November 15th.

The hall and tea-table were attractive with Christmas decorations.

The officers and members wish to convey their sincere thanks to Mrs. E. Piche for her untiring efforts and wonderful work.

Winners of the draws were as follows:

Cradle—Linda Dav.
Panda—Mrs. Dan Hellens.
Doll—Mrs. Norman Abraham
Cake—Mrs. S. Atkinson.

The president, Mrs. F. Prumen wishes to thank her committees and members and all who helped in any way to make this a most successful bazaar.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. W. Graffe and family wish to extend their heartfelt thanks and appreciation to their friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and floral tributes and help received during the loss of a dear father and grandfather.

Funeral Services Held for Governor of District Jail
