That Dr. W. Keith, surgeon, and Dr. J. Pritchard neurologist, on the staff of the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto, attended a clinic last Friday at Misericordia Hospital to examine 46 crippled children in this district. The trip was arranged by the Ontario Society for Crippled Children to whom the doctors give their services. Arrangements were made by the Rotary Club. The object of the visit is to determine whether there are any children who might benefit from further attention at the Sick Children's Hospital. You can further this outstanding work by responding to the sale of Easter Seals which began this week.

That Otto Ivany of Sault Ste Marie won the oratorical contest in Sudbury last Friday night. He received the O.S.S.S.F. Trophy with his winning topic "A Student Looks at the School Curriculum". Competitor Mollie Miller, who represented the Haileybury High School found participation in the debate "a wonderful experience".

That the men with the paint brush started in on Wednesday to put the finishing touch on the gymnasium. Draperies have been ordered and it looks as if the middle of next month will see the grand opening.

That you'd better batten down the hatches. Order doubles on the staples of life and watch out for the most violent storm in years. A Cobalt octogenarian agrees with us. He says we'll pay for this June in January stuff.

That the Girl Guides will spend Sunday on the Ski Club slopes.

That last Friday evening, Mrs. G. Hargrave held a social evening at her home to raise money for the C. P. & T. Fund. Games were played and the following won prizes: Mrs. G. Davies, Mrs. O. Childs, Mrs. M. Hurteau and Mrs. A. Hargrave.

That the Northern Ski Club will hold a bingo in the Cobalt Community Hall on Thursday, March 19th. Tickets are on sale now for the $50.00 draw which will be held the same night. Proceeds for the Building Fund.

That tickets for the I.O.D.E. Cooking School were given to members to sell at the meeting this week so plan now to learn the tricks of the trade on April 21, 22 and 23.

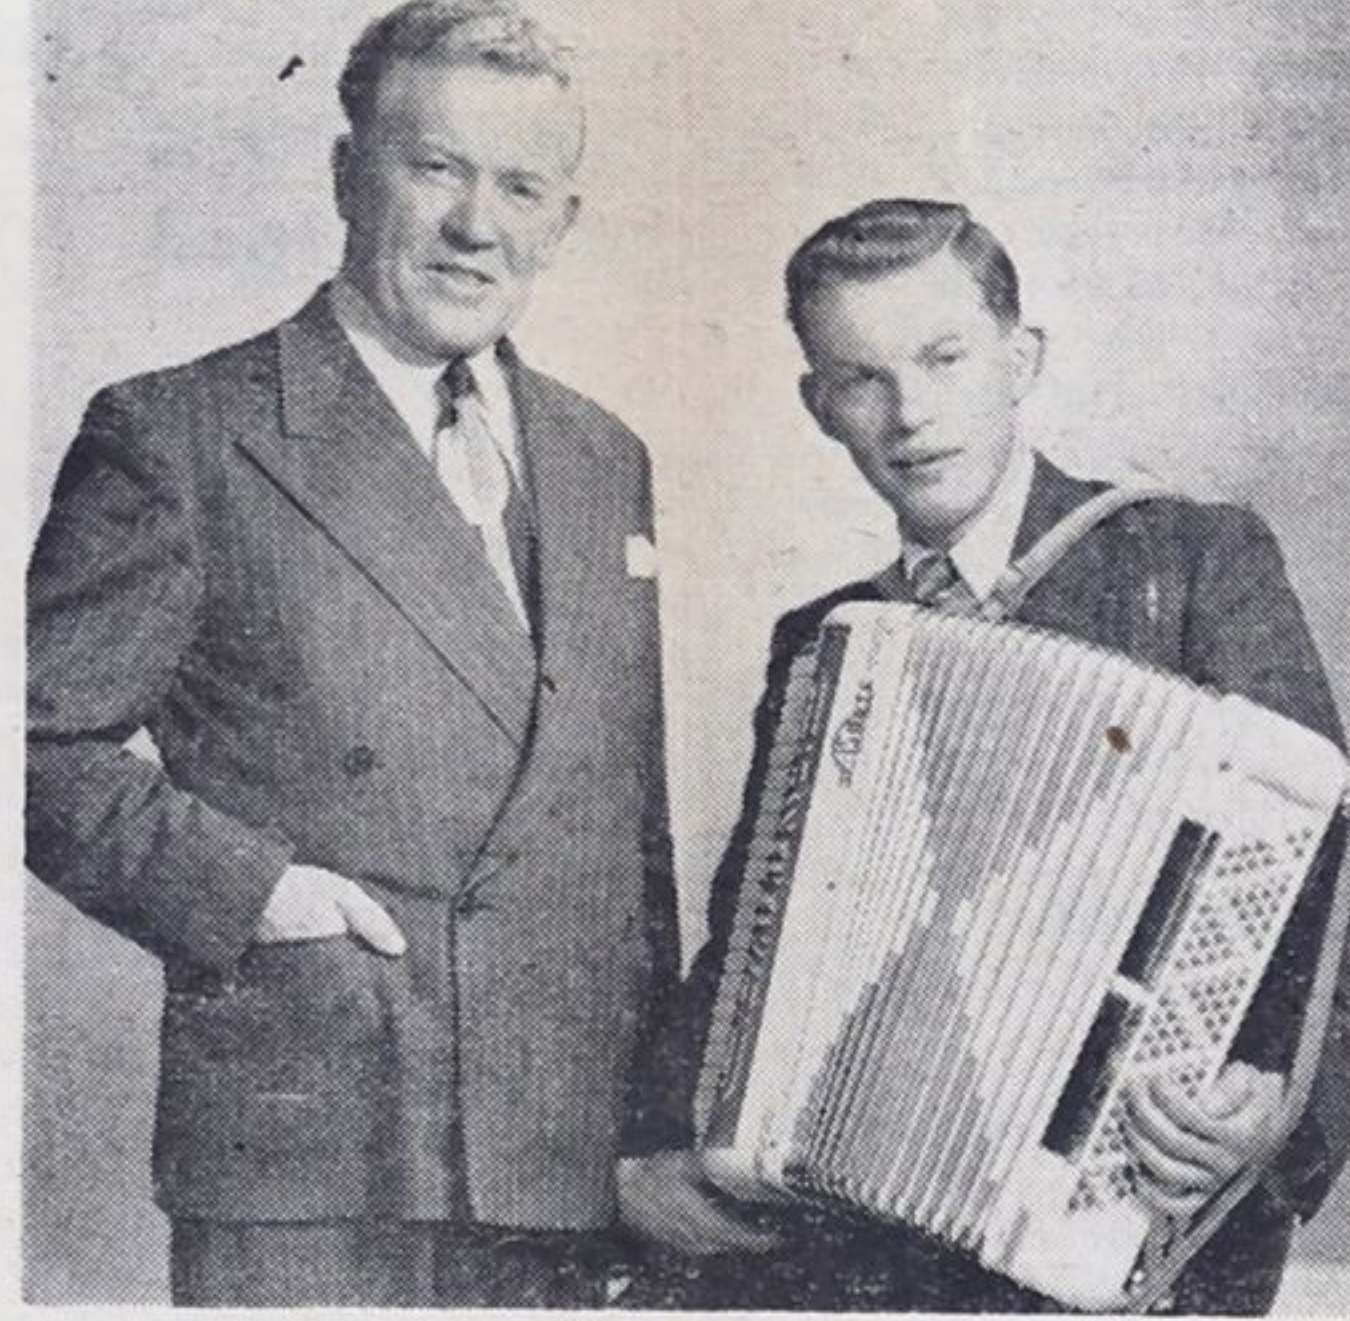

That because the Catholic Church card party is on March 17th and the Home and School open house is on March 24th, the of the Minniwassa Hotel and as Legion Ladies' Auxiliary have postponed their bingo until the 7th of April. And the thought occurs that every organization would do well to follow the example of the Legion and plan to avoid activities on the same evening by phoning dates to The Haileyburian.

That now that parents and children have enjoyed a wonderful Sunday at the Ski Club, hope they will make it a habit. If you do not participate in active sport we recommend a climb to the top of the ski run and a look at a view that will take your breath away. Edith Lyon, Dot Bagshaw, JoAnn Elton, Joan Thorne and Audrey Bond were kept busy with the hot chocolate and the coffee.

That Mr. and Mrs. John Hallworth celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary on Monday, March 9th.

That entries in the fifteenth annual Festival of Music must be in by March 15th. Which is this Sunday. So do not delay. Forms are available at The Haileyburian office and should be sent to W. S. Carr, secretary of the Festival.
