Youngsters' Sale Boosts Junior Red Cross Fund

The weatherman wasn't a bit nice to Denny Herbert and John Nauss on Saturday morning, but the sale went on. The two young eight-year-olds moved their wares to Denny's verandah and were kept busy as could be as all the kids in the neighborhood ran home for a nickel to buy popcorn, peanuts, candies, comics and plastic cars.

The energetic vendors realized

CAL JACKSON
The keyboard artistry of 33-year-old Calvin Jackson is well known to Canadians. He has been recognized as one of the leading pianists, composers and arrangers of popular music in Canada today. One-time writer and arranger for Harry James, he was assistant musical director for MGM in the United States before becoming a Canadian citizen.

the large sum of $1.45 which will swell the Red Cross Fund in their class at school. We congratulate them for a fine day's work in a magnificent cause.

BISAILLON—PROULX

The marriage took place quietly at the Holy Cross Church on Monday morning of Fernande Huguette Proulx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. E. Proulx to Rodolphe Jean Bisailon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bisailon of Val Caron, Ontario. Father L. Brunette officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle length dress of white tulle over taffeta. The full skirt was gathered at the waist. A bolero jacket and shoulder length veil caught up to a small cap completed the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of "Better Times" red roses.

Mr. Bisailon was his sons best man. At the reception held at the bride's home for the immediate family, Mrs. Proulx received in brown taffeta with a matching hat. She wore a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore navy blue with a matching hat and a corsage of red roses.

NASH—FOLKERTS

Rev. A. T. Denholm officiated on Saturday afternoon when the marriage of Rita Folkerts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tjipke Folkerts of Amsterdam to Peter William Nash, son of Mr and Mrs. Harold Nash of Wellington, Ontario, was quietly solemnized at the United Church manse.

The bride chose a street length dress of white lace over blue taffeta with a matching headdress. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Miss Edith Carlson, her only attendant wore pink net over taffeta with a navy half veil caught up with pink flowers. She carried yellow roses.

Mr. Thomas Nash of Wellington was his brother's best man. The grooms mother chose navy and white with a navy hat.
