Dear Editor:
 Might I presume to take friendly issue with you in respect of the heading of an editorial in the back issue of The Haileyburian to wit—Man's Best Friend Proves Haileybury's Worst Enemy."

We have been recently bereaved in the true sense of the word—when our little spaniel pet was clipped and run over by a truck right at our own doorstep, so to speak, as we were about to take her for a little car ride with us.

The truck proceeded on its way as if nothing unusual had happened. We would give the driver the benefit of the doubt in that he was unaware of the "little tragedy" he had unwittingly left behind him.

We had some consolation in the fact that our pet was killed instantly and was not left to suffer.

Some pets, like kiddies, are little individuals in their own sphere, and their actions at times are irresponsible, governed by excitement of the moment and perhaps the "spring fever" which affects all of us at this time of the year.

We buried her with the kindly sympathetic help of our neighbors and a small group of little playmates who knew her and I think will miss her too.

Quite a number of pets have had their short life span snuffed out recently—and not through roaming the highways—but quite close to their own home playing with neighboring kiddies. It could quite well happen that the major tragedy could be to the little owner and not the pet.

As a car operator we feel as much responsibility to avoid hitting a dog as we do to a person, which is not always the attitude of some drivers.

Accidents do happen, and likely will continue, but reasonable care and consideration in driving in the close residential district of this small community would avoid many accidents even to pets.

To brand the lowly dog as the "Greatest menace to the health of citizens" is an overstatement of fact. By the same reasoning our kiddies who also "leap out of nowhere" could be so classified.

We believe there are many Haileyburians who would feel as we do about their pets even though they may be mischievous at times, which is perhaps one of the reasons why we do love them.

Yours very truly,
 R. W. Carter,

TOP CONTESTANTS

Another indication of Canada's musical growth is seen in the fact that the highest standard so far was set this season in the nation-wide Singing Stars of Tomorrow competition. Typical of the contestants on the program are the youthful singers shown above: soprano Diane Oxner (left) of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia; Norman Mittleman from Winnipeg who is also incidentally, a football star, and Florianne Cotnoir of Noranda, Quebec.

Change of Occupation

"It seems to me that every housewife, even the mother of two, should have some part-time occupation. I'm not suggesting anything very ambitious, mind you. What we need is something to do outside our own kitchens which is just enough to show us that beyond today's left-overs and tomorrow's rice pudding, there are worlds we have never dreamt of."—Barbara Fleming.

Pickerel Dates Changed

Fishermen should note a change in dates of the pickerel season in this area this year. The season closed April 14th and remains closed until May 22nd.

Last year American spent $282 million while visiting Canada, and Canadians spent 307 million while visiting the United States.

YOUNG HAILEYBURY BOY SERVES WITH FORCES IN KOREA

Private Jean Jacques Denomme left this month to serve with the Canadian Forces in South Korea. The young soldier has been with the Canadian Guards for two years.

His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denomme have received their first letter this week and were pleased to learn that grandson likes the country.

In the recently ended fiscal year Canada marked up a $2,563-118 deficit on TV operations; also a radio loss of something like three million dollars. Commercial radio or TV couldn't operate that way long.
