

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yuill of Edmonton, Alta., were in town last week-end visiting with Mrs. N. J. McAulay. It was a great re-union as Mrs. Yuill and Mrs. McAulay are first cousins and hadn't seen one another for fifty years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tuke of Noranda were in town for the holiday week-end.

BORN—At Mattawa Hospital, on Sunday, May 16th, 1954, to Constable and Mrs. Ron Mc-

Leachan (nee Ethel Tombs), a daughter.

Bud Dempster is on a trip to Southern Ontario this week.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Angus last week-end were their daughter Mrs. Clarence Thorpe and Mr. Thorpe of Duparquet; Mrs. Angus' sister, Mrs. George Dixon and her son, Jim of Kitchener, and a niece, Mrs. G. Snelgrove of Ottawa.

Mrs. Emma Grant motored to Val d'Or over the holiday week-end to visit her daughter, Mrs. Elmo Fournier, Mr. Fournier and daughter Sue. She was accompanied by her eldest daughter, Mrs. Ken Gooding, Mr. Gooding and daughters of North Bay.

DIAMOND JUBILEE

tion opened when the Steamer Temiskaming of the Ville Marie Navigation Company arrived in port at 10:00 a.m. In the afternoon, the Meteor came up on her first trip. Both boats wintered at the foot of the lake and are looking forward to a good season with the new gold field in Rouyn and the construction of the power project on the Quinze river."

In the spring of 1923, the editor of The Haileyburian, the late J. T. Leishman, remarked "Times do change! Where a few years ago when two or more men were seen in earnest conversation on the streets of Haileybury, it was a safe bet that they were talking about stocks and minerals. Now, they are talking about buildings and contracts."

At the time of the fire the population of Haileybury was 3,500.

Put on your thinking cap and figure out who has lived the longest on your street. We'll start you off with Browning Street and take a guess that the honors go to A. W. Sanderson and W. C. Thuerck, and if we're wrong it's your privilege to tell us differently.

We urge you to do your part by starting early to send lists of former Haileyburians and anyone you think might be interested in coming to the Diamond Jubilee, to the Secretary, Miss Jean Grant. Old pictures, new pictures, old copies of newspapers and any articles of interest should be sent to The Haileyburian marked for safe return.

Last year Canada's leading imports were automobile parts, farm implements, crude petroleum electrical apparatus and rollmill products, engines and boilers, aircraft and parts, fruits, autos, cotton and wood products.
