

GOLF CLUB NOTES

On Sunday, golfers motored to North Bay to participate in their annual field day. Winter weather closed in but many of the seventy-five braved the cold winds to finish nine holes. Flora McFarlane won the hidden hole for the visitors and Ness McAulay was unbeatable on the greens, highlighting the precision performance with a long approach with a No. 4 wood that rolled in the cup. Total putts 15. The Juniors were well represented with Kathie Murphy, and Jane and June Ledwell playing the course for the first time. Jane came out on top in the "C" Division with the low gross. Others attending were Jeanne Murphy, Lou Dettmar, Phyll Bates and Hazel Thompson.

Over forty guests enjoyed the tea day last week and for those who would like to enjoy the social life of the Club—a reminder that verandah memberships are available for the season for $12.50 entitling the holder to all privileges except that of golfing.

If the rains should come on Sundays and the Stewardess is not at the Club early in the day, don't call off your plans for Sunday dinner because throughout the summer months dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

The first round of the Taylor Cup was played last Wednesday. Flora McFarlane and Jack McKnight and Grace McDonough and Art Stollery paired their golfing skill in the two-ball foursome to come in with the best scores. Other players were Jeanne Murphy and Ossie Walli, Annette Pringle and Cliff Lowery, Audrey Bond and her son Stephen and Ness McAulay and Wy Edey.

On Friday, members enjoyed luncheon at the Club and teed off in the Tuer event in the afternoon. Lou Dettmar and Ness McAulay qualified. The non-golfers had an afternoon at the bridge tables.

Something new from the Lady Captains—a two-ball foursome on Friday, July 2nd.

July 3rd to 9th inclusive is the second round of the Captains' Event and the C.L.G.U. Special
