New Liskeard, Ellis Shoppe . . . her window display was lovely . . .

That there is an unfinished project at the lake front and with such a united effort as filled in most of this unsightly graveyard in time for our 60 Anniversary, it shouldn't be too long before the vision of a park worthy of the beauty of the lake will be a reality. . thanks to the determined efforts of A. C. Mosher Chairman of Public Works, R. J. Poppleton, and his host of volunteer workers, this mess which has been a horror to look at for Min. temp. 45 41.6 35.8 (1904) months on end was just almost filled hats off to Conlin and Hogan, Elmer Evans, Herbert Fuel, V. Sulphur and his two trucks, John Sulphur, Albert Palmer, Percy Farrow, Basil Treen, Billy Hughes and a special to Ivan and Shorty Sadler for their trucks and shovel and working like Trojans to finish the job . . . and a good jab at the councillors for not pulling in wholeheartedly behind the scheme . . .sixty years comes but once. . .in those sixty the roads have been rough, they have been dusty, manholes have been popping off and sewers have been plugged and life being what it is they will probably continue to cause terrific headaches. . . meantime, here was a project which promised to take not too much time to last a lifetime and with great possibilities for beautifying the town to the pleasure of everyone. . . well, anyhow boys, it was a great effort and don't think it wasn't appreciated. . .

That the Jubilee Committee received letters last week from S. Norfolk of Grimsby, Madge Aubert

Crouch of Lancaster and Mary Cullen of Montreal wishing us good luck with regret that they could not be

That up front for a big hand are Keith Lathem and Norman Mac Pherson mounted on two handsome steeds leading the parade

That everywhere you turned someone was working and here and there we noticed Mrs. W. Stollery of the United Church W. A. Mrs. C. C. D. Pringle of the Anglican Church and the H. W. I. ladies and the I. O. D. E. all playing a big part in a Diamond Jubilee. . .
