you really should be prepared to be disappointed.

At a field day held on Tuesday, August 3rd, when, surprisingly enough it was raining, golfers enjoyed a full day with a luncheon at noon. In the approaching and putting, Audrey Bond was the precision expert with a score of eight while Jeane Murphy went around the clock in 26 putts. Stella Blanchette and Audrey Bond won prizes for being the best playing scramble—we do not intend to enlarge on this because we do not know what scramble is nor have we time to find out.

Last Friday, Eleanor Whitby and Ness McAulay qualified in the Jemmett.

On Sunday, golfers will head for Temiskaming to take part in their annual visitors' day.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our kind friends and neighbours for their many expressions of sympathy during our recent sad bereavement.

GRIGNON—SOUCIE

A lovely wedding ceremony of wide interest took place in the Holy Cross Church on Saturday morning when Gwen Ann Soucie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Soucie of Haileybury became the bride of Adelard Edmond Grignon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grignon of Haileybury. Father L. Brunette officiated and during the ceremony Mrs. Bert Dans sang "Ave Maria" and "Pans Angelicus."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a handsome gown of cloud white nylon tulle fashioned with a full skirt. The short sleeve-cut of lace had a simple low-cut neckline and her finger-tip veil was caught up to a Juliet cap. She carried a white Bible and an orchid.

Maiona Soucie was her sister's maid-of-honor and she chose a ballerina length soft mauve organdy dress with a matching bolero. She carried matching mums.

The bridesmaids were Dorothy Soucie, a sister of the bride and Mariette Grignon, a sister of the groom. They were gowned alike in yellow organdy and carried matching mums.

Roger Grignon was his brother's best man and the ushers were Paul Grignon and Allan Soucie of Timmins.

At the reception held in the Hotel Haileybury, Mrs. Soucie received in an autumn rust dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by Mrs. Grignon who chose a two-piece sky blue suit with navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

For travelling to Washington, the bride chose autumn shades
