SHORT CIRCUIT CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE AT J. M. ROBB'S HOME

It was a dismal Tuesday evening, with a high wind and a lashing rain when the firebell rang out at supper time. A Hydro pole toppled over on Brewster Street and a short circuit set fire to the kitchen wall at the home of J.M. Robb on the Lake Shore Road. Firemen were able to bring the fire quickly under control as evening traffic was diverted up Brewster and Florence. The kitchen of the Robb home was completely gutted; the ceiling in the dining room was burnt out;

GOLF CLUB EXECUTIVE

In years gone by, the annual prize presentation has taken place at the closing dance but this year, the members of the Executive who met this week have decided to try something new. Rather than interrupt the dance to hold what is the most important event of the season at the Club, a supper will be held on Sunday evening. Following this, formal presentation of trophies and prizes will be made by the Presidents and Captains of the Men's and Ladies' Sections.
