MR. AND MRS. BILL NAUSS LEAVE THIS WEEK FOR NEW HOME IN TORONTO

Haileybury is a community where people come and go more often than many places because of an economy peculiar to this town. Seldom do we take time to bid them all good-bye as we should, because we cannot keep pace. This week however we regretfully say a warm good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Naus for we are losing two people who have given invaluable service in almost every corner of this town.

Members of the Anglican Church where Bill was a Rector, Warden and Eleanor was president of the W.A. expressed their thoughts with a travelling case and an Alex MacLean picture. Neighbours have presented them with a work by G. L. Cassidy. The Boy Scouts had an evening in their honor with a presentation. Temiskaming Builders have sent the man of the house off with a brief case. The C.A.M.M. showed their appreciation to an untiring Executive member.

More than this, Eleanor is a past president of the Home and School and a director of Community Concerts. Both were members of the golf club and the curling club.

Cottage Total Loss After Monday Fire

Fire of unknown origin led the summer cottage of Harry Jenkins at Paradise Bay on Monday night. Mr. Harry Jenkins and his father Robert Jenkins of Haileybury were staying at the cottage at the time and discovered the fire in the early morning. With no water available, they were unable to save the summer place.

Lessons in Living

People who thing positively know no fears of any sort. They are going places in this world and know it. They do not know the word failure. When you find a tendency to criticize people, when you are resentful towards someone, when you are always peat it, you are a negative keen to listen to gossip and re-thinker.—A. E. Cliffe, Ph.D.
