

SPORTS PARADE

Wed., June 1st—Ideal Dairy and North Cobalt met for the first time this year with North Cobalt taking a close one, 3-2.

The hitting was even with each team getting five. Dudley Huff collected three of Ideal Dairy's five hits to lead both teams.

Both pitchers went the route with Keith Latham winning his first game to even his count at 1-1 while Lee Huff lost his second game, coupled with no wins. Ideal .. 2 0 0 0 0 0 2 5 4 N. Cobalt 0 3 0 0 0 0 3 5 4 Umpires—Plate W. Grozelle; bases, Geo. Weston.

Friday night saw another close game as O'Brien downed Steelworkers 10-9. O'Brien took an early lead, collecting 8 runs in the first, three of these runs came when Guy Wilson hit home run with two men on. He also hit a double to centre to score O'Brien's other two runs bringing his RBI total for the game to five.

Twelve hits for the Steelworkers was not enough as they stranded eleven men on the base paths.

Caufield won his second game of the year although he needed help from Lawrence Othmer in the 7th to stop the steelworkers rush, Bob Cole, the starter and loser for the Steelworkers.

Steel... 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 5 9.12.3 O'Brien... 8 0 2 0 0 0 .x 10 9 3 Umpires—W. Grozelle at the plate; D. Huff on the bases.

Sunday saw the Town beat its first loss as Ideal Dairy took them 11-5. The Town were without two of their best players and one pitcher. Star shortstop Bill Grozelle and heavy-hitting Fred Abraham and pitcher Doug Hargrave were absent (without leave). The hitting was well mixed with five players for Ideal Dairy collecting two hits each. The third inning was the fatal one for the Town with Ideal Dairy getting five runs on five hits. The Town's best offensive effort was by Roger Fleming with two doubles. Defensively Roger also made several nice catches.

Dairy .. 2 0 5 2 2 0 0 11 14.4 Town .. 0 1 0 2 0 1 1 5 7.4 Umpires—J. E. McAndrews at the plate; A. Fleury on the bases. Monday night saw the first game that had to go extra innings when North Cobalt and O'Brien played to a 17-17 deadlock after eight innings. Errors were the feature of the night with both teams making 17. The 1st inning looked like a walkaway with North Cobalt collecting nine runs on three hits, but O'Brien came back with 8 runs in the last half of the 1st on two hits. The game progressed slowly until the last of the 7th with the score 17-12. O'Brien did the impossible by getting five runs to tie the score. One extra inning of play proved nothing and so the game goes into the books as a tie. The offensive highlight of the game was a grand slam home run by Bob Belanger which scored four of O'Brien's eight in the first. Ab Fleury collected a double, triple and single to lead North Cobalt's hitting. Defensively both teams were very much off the beam.

N. Cob. .. 9 0 3 2 0 0 0 17 10 10 O'Brien .. 8 0 3 0 1 0 5 0 17 10 7 Umpires—W. Grozelle at the plate; F. Abraham, on the bases. Games next week are as follows: Thursday, North Cobalt vs Town; Monday, Ideal Dairy vs. Steelworkers; Wednesday, O'Brien vs. North Cobalt; Friday, Town vs. Ideal Dairy.
