WEDDING BELLS WALSH—LABINE

Holy Cross Church was the scene of a pretty wedding June 18 at 10:00 a.m. when Nora Mary Labine of Ottawa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Labine of Haileybury and Edgar Thomas Walsh, son of Mr. T. J. Walsh and the late Mrs. Walsh of New Liskeard took their marriage vows. Father Lionel Brunette officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with mixed summer flowers. The organist was a sister from the convent, and soloist Father Landriault sang "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother," "Ave Marie" and "Pani's Angelicus".

The bride, given in marriage by her father chose a gown of waltz length swiss lace and nylon net skirt with a large scalloped lace inset and a matching jacket with a u-neck buttoned down to the waist and long tight sleeves finishing with points over the hand.

Headdress was a type crown of lace and seeded pearls with elbow length veil of French illusion net; pearl ear-rings and a single strand of pearls completed the ensemble. The bride carried a white prayers book covered with sweetheart roses. The bridesmaid, Teresa Labine wore a waltz length gown of aqua marine net over taffeta, a removable jacket with a v-neck and halo type headdress of matching material. She carried a spray of yellow mums and calla leaves.

Bridegroom's attendant was Earl Walsh, brother of the groom; ushers were Leo Labine and Wilfred Walsh.

At a reception held at the Hotel Haileybury the bride's mother chose a navy blue crepe dress, navy hat, white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points in Southern Ontario the bride wore a light blue suit, white straw hat with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
