GOLF CLUB NOTES

Three of the local players attended the Northern Ontario Golf Tournament held in Sudbury last week. They were Flora McFarlane who qualified in the championship flight, Grace McDonough and Jeanne Murphy in the first flight.

Jeanne Murphy was the only prize winner getting second prize in the consolation of the first flight.

Everyone was high in their praise of the official way the Tournament was run and the sociability of it.

Tea hostesses for next week will be Mrs. S. Bond, Mrs. E. McDonough, Mrs. B. Budgeon, Mrs. R. W. Carter, Mrs. A. Legris.

The Jackson Cup which is an event with adjusted handicaps was finished off last week with Jean Grant winning in the final from Stella Blanchette and Annette Pringle won the consolation from Elenor Whitby.

One of the most enjoyable and amusing evenings was held at the Golf Club last Thursday, July 28th. when Joe Kirkwood the worlds most famous golfer entertained a lager crowd for over an hour to spectacular golf shots.

Whether one was familiar with the game or not, Joe, with his sharp wit and keen humor punctuated his display with comments and imitations of how some players of both sexes performed when getting ready to take a shot which was a delight to the audience.

His trick array of clubs range from the normal to the ridiculous and he drew a sharp reprimand from a Scotchman on the sidelines when he used a tee with an anchor attached, explaining this was what they used in Scotland. He also used a sling shot to carry the elusive ball over the green. No matter what club he used he could put the ball any place he wanted it to go.

Before this exhibition a nine hole round was played by Joe Kirkwood, Merv. Stoughton and Harry Kemp, New Liskeard and "Cuffy" Dixon, Kirkland Lake. Some excellent golf was witnessed with Joe shooting a 34 two below par, Stoughton 36, H. Kemp 37 and Dixon 44.

Mr. Kirkwood who lives in Daytona Beach, Fla., was accompanied north by his twin sons Ron and Ken, 12 years olds, who know a lot about golf from their famous father and acted as caddies for him.

A chicken dinner at the club rounded off the day.

WITH THE ALGONQUINS AT PETAWAWA

SSM Bob Trott and Capt. Bob. Poppleton Officer Commanding C Sqn. The Algonquin Regiment are comparing scores here on their "shoot" from the big guns in their tanks at Petawawa tank range.

One of the people responsible for feeding the Regiment, SQMS Jim Lyttle of Cobalt is seen here with Padre H. E. Talyor and Sgt. J. H. Goodman of Kirkland Lake. This was reported the best camp period the Algonquins have enjoyed in their history.

One of the busiest men at Petawawa Camp with the Algonquin Regiment was Padre J. E. Jordan of Cobalt who paused long enough to have his picture taken with Trooper H. T. Hawken of New Liskeard.

Shirley Campbell, 19 year old, shore of Toronto. Had she finished the swim, she would have been the second person to cross Lake Ontario. She was forced to give up within 2 miles of the swam Lake Ontario last year.

Years of Service Ahead.

...and it only cost a Buck!

We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Harry Coull, of Haileybury, won the draw entitling her to buy a New Kelvinator Washing Machine for one dollar.

We know that Mrs. Coull will be delighted with the machine's performance, just as thousands of other Kelvinator users are, every day of the week.
