BY BOB FLEMING

Mr. C. J. Mossington, Service Bureau Officer of the Canadian Legion, Ontario Provincial Command, will be visiting the Haileybury Branch, between the hours of 2:00 pm and 3:00 pm on Thursday, September 22nd, 1955.

Any veterans, or their dependants, who would like any assistance or advice with problems concerning war pensions, allowances, treatment or general welfare, are asked to contact the Secretary at Box 527, or leave a message at phone number 270. I will be pleased to arrange an interview for you.

We of the Legion will be holding a stag in the Legion Hall on Friday September 23rd. Our raffle is for a tailor made suit of clothes. Which is for a man or woman of course. We hope that this our first stag in a long time will go very well.

Being chairman of the Poppy Committee for our branch this year I will use the opportunity this column offers to tell you all about the importance of Poppy Day. We want the children in our schools informed on the importance and reason for the Poppy to our veterans that are disabled and unable to care for themselves. On Poppy Day everyone should be wearing a poppy. The time is fast approaching for our calls to all the business men and organizations in our town and we want them prepared for us with a sale for a wreath a wreath we would like to have our campaign bigger and better than ever before.

I will go more deeply into the meaning and importance of this day for our disabled comrades in this column in the future as the time draws nearer.

ANIMAL CAMOUFLAGE

"We learned a good deal about camouflage in the first world war, but nothing like the amount we learned, or perhaps I should say applied, in the second. It has taken years of wars, culminating in the greatest human conflict of all time, for the administrative military arm to appreciate principles which have been the stock in trade of the animal kingdom for millions of years, and which have been known very well to biologists and naturalists for quite a few centuries. There is nothing in the way of camouflage that has yet been invented by man which has not been produced at some time or another in the course of evolution in some part of the animal kingdom," stated James Fisher, talking in a BBC programme about animal camouflage.

SPORTS PARADE

Last Thurs., N. Cobalt clinched their spot in the play-offs by beating a weakened Town team 7-6. The Town were without 3 of their players including their ace pitcher and had to play with only 8 men for the last inning.

Keith Lathem was the winning pitcher as well as the leading hitter for N. Cobalt. He had 3 hits and scored 3 of their seven runs. The Abraham brothers gave the Town half of their hits, Fred getting 3 and Norm getting 2.

N. Cobalt 020131 7 10 3
Umpires were: A. Moore, K. Rowe and J. Shouldice.
Fri. nite St. Workers eliminated O'Brien in another close game 10-9. At one time in the game O'Brien had an 8-0 lead but their pitching trio of Lawrence and Willis Othmer and Johnny Caulfield could not hold off the St. Workers attack as they collected all but 1 of their 10 hits in the last 2 innings. Lawrence Othmer pitched to the last 2 batters and gave up the winning run as he walked Johnny Poloni and Charlie Oatey hit a double into left field to score Poloni from second. Ted Bates pitched the full game and gave up 10 hits also.

St. Workers offense was headlined by Rolly Beaulieu and Ted Bates who each had 2 for 3. For O'Brien, Johnny Caulfield, Robert Belanger and Bud Cloutier each had 2.

HAIRDRESSER'S PRIVILEGE

"Once when the George Edwards Company was spending a fortnight at the Prince of Wales Theatre, there was a charming young lady in the chorus whose parents were friends of my mother, and she was invited to stay at our house, a welcome change from the usual digs. I used to meet her at the stage door every night to bring her home, much to the chargin of pop-eyed young men who waited to see the lovelies come out. I was privileged to take down her glorious hair every night, and allowed a kiss over every hairpin. The first night there were eighteen hairpins to remove. By the end of the fortnight there must have been dozens." A. L. Mathison said talking in the BBC's Midland Home Service.

TO KEEP JUNIOR GOING

With school days here again and Junior's mind and muscles getting a good workout, the youngster needs plenty of food, chosen to supply the various proteins, minerals and vitamins that will help him to grow sturdy and strong. The lunch he takes to school should contain as much nourishment as the mid-day meal he would have at home. Sandwiches made from whole-grain bread, filled with meat, fish, eggs, cheese or peanut butter, together with some raw vegetable (carrot sticks are good) and fruit and a dessert will take care of his food needs until his next regular meal. A hot drink or soup in a vacuum flask will make a welcome addition on cooler days.

WEDDING BELLS GAUVREAU-SEGUIN

The marriage took place in St. Stephens' Church in Charlton of Andree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Seguin to Rheume, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gauvreau, with Rev. Father Dionne officiating.

The wedding music was played by Anita Morreau, and Rita Lalapme was the soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a pale suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. She was attended by her sister, Alma, as bridesmaid who wore a tan suit with maize accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The best man was Ronald Gauvreau.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. The bride's mother received in a grey dress and wore a corsage of carnations. The groom's mother, also received wearing a beige dress and pink accessories and pink carnations. Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by the Separate School Board in Charlton.

touching it is the way she thinks it's the most beautiful baby there's ever been. You can't help your heart warming towards her. Well it's much the same with inventors as far as I am concerned. There's the same fond pride on their part—and in you the same feeling 'Let 'em go on believing it's a wonderful production as long as they can. They'll find out the truth about it soon enough!'
