EDITORIALS

The termites that destroy a building's foundations, hate the light of day. The Communists who would destroy the foundations of our liberty, hate the glare of publicity.

There are two schools of thought in the newspaper business. One, that it is best to let sleeping dogs lie, and do nothing to disturb the status quo, for fear of offending. And the other, more old fashioned, that it is the duty of a newspaper, however small, to be vigilant in the public interest.

We have no regrets that the Haileyburian brought the activities of the Communists in Cobalt to the attention of the public. We believe that a newspaper has a duty to the public that transcends purely commercial interests.

We have no quarrel with the workers at the Coballoy. They were entitled to seek union organization, and it is unfortunate that they fell into the hands of a union that has been communist dominated for years.

We carry no torch for the United Steelworkers. The Steelworkers have done many stupid things in their time, and one of the few good things that can be said for them is that they have never played ball with the Reds. In fact, if the Steelworkers organization had been on its toes, the Commies would never have had the chance to organize the Coballoy.

The price of liberty is eternal vigilance, and the activities of a few Reds in our own back yard, is just as dangerous to our liberty as the Reds in Korea or Indo-China. And we would suggest to the workers at the Coballoy, that instead of threatening to beat the Haileyburian Editor's brains out, they would be better employed chastising the stupid and ignorant men who first invited Mine-Mill into the camp.

Thanks, Anita

A small weekly paper has to rely on the goodwill of its readers for much of its news. We would like to acknowledge our real debt of gratitude to Miss Anita Plaunt, secretary of the local softball league. Anita has done a wonderful job of reporting news of the softball games through the summer, and besides being an accomplished and charming beautician, she certainly is a good sports reporter. Thanks very much, Anita.

THE ROTARY WHEEL
by Norman Abraham

We had the honour this week of making a presentation to a home town girl, and also our Rotary Club pianist, Mary Whitby, who won the Maurice Cody scholarship. Mary not only has played the piano at our meetings every Monday, but has helped our club in many ways such as organizing square dancing teams and in helping with the work at the beach and park. She will be greatly missed by the Club when she leaves for college and we wish her all the luck in her new venture.

Our guest speaker this week was Alec Wilson of the Temiskaming Construction Limited in Haileybury. Alec spoke briefly on the construction of the newly proposed Mining Museum which was illustrated by a small scale model made by Alec. The campaign for raising funds towards this Museum started this Monday.

The main objective of our Club is helping crippled children which again we had the opportunity of doing this week.

While mentioning about crippled children in this column, there should be a school for crippled minds of parents who leave a helpless child, screaming at the top of its voice, locked in an automobile outside a hotel, while they are inside the hotel enjoying their drinks. This same thing was witnessed on Saturday night right here in our own town.

What would you do to these people?

WHAT COUNCIL DID

The council did a good night's business in the real estate line at their monthly meeting this week. Lots were sold to four Haileybury citizens. George Johnson paid $450 for a lot next to the Salvation Army on Browning. C. R. Plaunt paid $150 for half a lot on Browning. A. C. Mosher bought the Rotary Club storage on Marcella near the tracks for $150, and Mrs. George Harrison paid $25 for a lot on 4th street.

Ken Watson, already fire chief and building inspector got saddled with another job. He is now inspector of excavations. This is to comply with the Trench Excavations Act, which is designed to prevent people digging holes and burying themselves.

The Misericordia hospital offered to buy five lots facing the hospital, but council decided to consider the matter before reaching a decision.

FALL MEETING OF IODE

The regular monthly meeting of the Haileybury Chapter IODE was resumed Monday evening after the holidays. It was held at the home of Mrs. G. H. Morgan, Lake Shore Road. Mrs. Jack Thomson, the Regent, opened the meeting in the usual manner with the country's flag brought forward. Business being dealt with, it was decided to hold a penny auction, Sept. 27 at the home of Mrs. Henry Jensen, on Brewster Street. Each member is to bring two guests with her.

The spring tea will be held Saturday, Dec. 3rd at the home of Mrs. Cummings, everyone is invited; so keep Dec. 3rd open for the IODE tea. At this tea a doll dressed in fifty-one dollar bills will be drawn with the tickets on sale now from any member. The meeting was brought to a close and a tasty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Morgan assisted by Mrs. Esther Drew, Mrs. Wilf Bailey, Mrs. Jack Thomson and Mrs. C. E. Grozelle. The hostess was thanked for the use of her home. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Pratt of Lake Shore Road.

MOBILE DISPLAY UNIT

The Ground Observer Corps story is graphically portrayed in a Mobile Display that is to be seen in numerous Ontario Towns this Fall. Cochrane residents will see the display at their Fall Fair, 13 and 14 September, 1955. It will then be taken to New Liskeard for showing in September 15, 16, and 17th. Volunteers from the areas mentioned can help the cause by offering their services to the attending officer.

In Memoriam

Nelson—In loving memory of a dear husband and father Swan J. Nelson, who passed away August 31st, 1941.

Memory is a lonely lane,
Where hearts are ever true,
A lane we often travel down
Because it leads to you,
Looking back with memories,
Upon the path you trod
We bless the years we had you
And leave the rest to God.

Ever remembered by wife and family.

"At jobs around home
I am handy" . . .

(My wife thinks this is just dandy.)

I do it myself, and save money,
And always my spirit

stays sunny.

The reason for this I'll relate:

Now YOU can paint
as easy as 1-2-3

Even if you've never painted before, you can do a clean, easy job of painting your home with Scarfe's Thix—the new jelled paint.

1. OPEN THE THIX CAN. There's the paint ready for use. No thinning needed.

2. DIP BRUSH. No need to stir. Brush takes up just the right amount of paint.

3. START PAINTING. Paint doesn't drip, splash, spatter, or run down the brush handle.

This goes on just as smooth as smooth. There's no mess, no trouble. Thix comes in a range of shades to suit most colour schemes. Ask your Scarfe dealer about Thix.
