

Social notes Henry Szerynk--Violinist

Presented By Jeunesses Musicales

Mrs. Frank Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peters of Timmins renewed acquaintances in Haileybury this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Thorpe of Niagara Falls were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes. While here Mrs. Thorpe unveiled the memorial plaque on the cenotaph at New Liskeard.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden Caswell of Sudbury, with their sons Donald and Gerald, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes last weekend.

Dr. W. C. Arnold, Dr. J. C. Crawford, C. F. Tuer, J. M. Shouldice, and Graham Hennessey have returned from a hunting trip.

A hunting party comprised of Keith and John Valentine and Leo Gough returned after a week end hunting trip with a nice big buck, in fact it was the nicest we've seen this year. Keith was the marksman, by the way.

Alex Mosher left Haileybury yesterday for New York, on the first leg of a journey to Germany. Mr. Mosher will leave New York November 17 and fly by Luft Hansa Airlines to Frankfurt.

He expects to be in West Germany for two or three weeks discussing business matters, and will return via London, England.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dempster, at Misericordia Hospital, on Saturday, November 5th, 1955, a son, Neil Erik.

Mrs. Howard Hazlett of Kingston arrived in town last week to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dempster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gooding and daughters of North Bay, visited Mrs. Gooding's mother, Mrs. E. Grant over the week-end. Mr. Gooding's mother also accompanied them.

Anglican Church Bazaar

There will be fancy work tables, candy and white elephant tables when the Women's Association of St. Paul's Anglican Church in Haileybury hold their bazaar next Saturday.

The bazaar will be held from three to six o'clock in the parish hall.

The Jeunesses Musicales of Haileybury will be presenting Henry Szerynk, violinist, at their second concert of the 1955-56 season. The concert will be held at the Community Memorial Hall in New Liskeard, Wednesday, November 16th at 8.30 p.m.

Henry Szerynk was born in Warsaw in 1918. While very young he studied under the direction of Carl Flesch who presented him at the age of 13 with Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra before a public who acclaimed him.

Shortly afterwards he won the first prize at Le Conservatoire de Paris. He made his first concert tour in Rumania. Shortly after 1943 he had great success in Paris with the Symphony Orchestra of this Capital.

In Vienna he obtained great success for his exceptional interpretation of Brahms Concerto; in 1935 he was decorated with "L'Ordre du Merite Culturel", in appreciation for his exceptional artistic career.

A series of concerts which he gave with La Societe des Concerts du Conservatoire et l'Orchestre Lamoureux et Padeloup made him take his place among the greatest violinists of our time. Szerynk has been acclaimed by all South America, the United States and Canada.

This great violinist who is comparable with Heifetz, Milstein, Menuhin, has been acclaimed by the press throughout the world. Even though he is still very young his career has been crowned with triumph in Paris, London, Vienna, Bruxelles, Madrid, Lisbon, Barcelona, New York, Mexico, Havana, Buenos Aires and all teh principal cities of the American Continent.

He has played under the direction of such eminent mastros as Bruno Walter, Pierre Monteux, E. Kleiber, Artur Rodzinsky, Sir Malcolm Sargent, Albert Wolff, Paul Paray, Desire Defauw, E. Cooper, etc.

Since 1946 he became a Mexican citizen and the Government of this country has endowed him the mission of proclaiming Mexican music throughout the world. He won the first prize for recording in 1955 in France.

Henry Szerynk is probably the greatest artist ever to accept a tour with the Jeunesses Musicales of Canada. It is a unique opportunity for all to hear this great virtuoso. He will be accompanied by Charles Reiner, well known Montreal pianist.

OBITUARY

BOYCE

Funeral service for the late M. K. (Ken) Boyce who passed away suddenly Friday morning at his home at Upper Notch Hydro Plant, was held from the Perrin Funeral Chapel on Monday afternoon.

Rev. Geo. Brown of Cobalt United Church conducted the service.

Well-known in Hydro circles, Mr. Boyce had 25 years service with the Ontario Hydro, being employed as an operator at the Upper Notch Power Plant.

He started in 1929 with the Northern Ontario Power Company at Indian Chutes, continuing with Ontario Hydro after the amalgamation of this Company.

He took an active interest in the Hydro Employees' Association, becoming Chief Stewart for the New Liskeard Area.

Born in Braeside Ontario in 1902, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Milton Boyce of Haileybury.

In 1931 he married the former Ann Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher of New Liskeard.

Besides his wife, he leaves three children, Muriel, Glen and Brenda, two sisters, Mrs. E. Laverne of Ottawa, Mrs. E. J. Simpson of Agincourt Ontario and one brother Harry of Ottawa. Pallbearers were Hydro men, Sylvester Speck, Alex Strang, Fred Lewis, Warren Fernholm, Paul Nedeau and Ross MacDougall.

Hydro representatives attended the funeral from North Bay, Kirkland Lake and Timmins. Interment was in New Liskeard Cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS

McNAIR — IRVING

A wedding of interest to Haileyburians took place recently in Hamilton. Sheila Margaret Irving, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Irving, was married to Ronald Julian McNair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bruce McNair.

Miss Irving is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Thorpe of Haileybury. The wedding took place in the New Westminster Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. T. G. Marshall officiating.
