BIGGER AND BETTER

Canada's birthrate is increasing. With more children, there are more possibilities for contagious diseases to become epidemic unless youngsters are protected against them by immunization.

Many of these diseases are often fatal; even more frequently they result in some form of impairment that lasts a lifetime. Immunization in Canada is obtainable free and no child should be allowed to go through childhood without protection against such dangerous illness.

SOCIAL EVENING

An interesting time was spent on Sunday night after the regular church service in the United Church, when the session entertained those present to a social evening.

There was a sing-song of hymns with Mrs. Don Gardner at the piano, quartette by Mrs. Lyon, Mr. Beasley and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilkin, with the organist, Mrs. A. F. Herity as accompanist.

A colored film was shown called "A people without fear" which is a documentary film showing Christians in different parts of the world worshipping where and how they desired, in their own way, without fear, as to their faith in the Christian Religion.

A lunch was served by the members of the Session at the close and a social hour enjoyed.

MINING SCHOOL

By B. Longmore, N. Hickey Stan. Kótyk
The majority of the freshmen class at the Provincial Institute of Mining are men who were born and raised in the mining camps of Central and Northern Ontario. The minority represent Southern Ontario as well as several other Canadian provinces.

A large percentage of the class came directly out of high schools whereas the remainder came here from various jobs and professions.

We have two professional miners from the Helen Mine in Wawa, Ontario, and several others from Timmins, Kirkland Lake Sudbury and Cobalt. One of our boys worked at Yellowknife. Two students are ex-R.C.M.P. constables, one being a World II veteran. Another was employed by Trans-Canada Airlines at Toronto. Two students have previously attended universities.

The ages range from seventeen to thirty years, indicating in var-

Reverend J. W. Wilkinson officiated and remained during the afternoon Mrs. R. W. Wilkinson and the President of the W. A. Mrs. A. Hurst received the guests.

The room was tastefully decorated with Red and Green paper and Green boughs and the pretty colors of the different articles for sale made as an added attraction. The tea table was prettily arranged with a lace cloth and red candles and red carnations as a center decoration.
