Her husband, who predeceased her in 1951, was well known in the town and district as a prospector and lumberman. They first came to Haileybury in 1902, landing in a pointer, and Mrs. Dickson resided here until her husband's death.

Mrs. Dickson was born in Port Perry, Ont., the former Elizabeth Smith. She married the late Mr. Dickson in 1896 in Toronto.

She is survived by three daughters, Beatrice, Mrs. William Edwards of Toronto; Hazel Mrs. Harold Pethick of Toronto; and Pearl, Mrs. Stan Belanger of South Porcupine. Reverend H. Staples of Haileybury Baptist Church officiated at the funeral service conducted from Tullóch's chapel in Haileybury. Interment was at Mount Pleasant.
