

District Digest

Temagami—The Cecil Connelly trophy, donated for the Lions Club in the district having the highest percentage attendance for a year, has been won by the Temagami Lions Club.

It was presented to the president, D. W. Christie, at the annual ladies' night of the club.

Making the presentation was Ed Collier, zone chairman, acting on behalf of the district governor.

It was stated the Temagami club had more than 100 points in excess of the total for the nearest competing club.

Mr. Christie thanked Mr. Collier and also extended thanks to the members who had worked so hard to earn the trophy for Temagami.

The dinner was served by members of the Temagami Woman's Institute under the chairmanship of Mrs. S. H. Burwash.

Among visitors welcomed by the president were: Earl Tapping, past district deputy governor and, Mrs. Tapping, New Liskeard; Lorne Woods, of New Liskeard Kiwanis Club, and Mrs. Woods.

Cochrane—Gabriel Etherington faced an unusual charge when magistrate M. Legar advanced the time for court this week and dealt with offenders on Monday. Etherington had secreted himself when Luazon's pool room at Moosenee was closed one night recently, then helped himself to what he wanted and "broke out," and found that it was just as serious an offence as breaking and entering. He was sentenced to gaol for nine months definite and three months indefinite.

AULD LANG SYNE

THE BIBLE TODAY

Many who appreciate and use the Bible could not put into words their reasons for doing so. C. E. Holmes has analysed why he believes the Bible as follows.

Because it is the champion of human liberties.

Because it is founded upon justice and mercy.

Because it fills men with a desire to help others.

Because it presents the divine-human Person—Christ

Because it points out the Way from sin to salvation.

Because it brings peace and comfort to heart and mind.

Because no other book has ever been so loved and hated.

Because its life stories have a perennial, universal charm.

Because it reveals the only indispensable man—Christ Jesus.

Because its influence is rapidly travelling to the whole world

Because after 2,000 years of publication it is still the best seller.

Because its benefits are not limited to any race, color or condition.

Because, when accepted, men immediately seek for better things.

Because it provides the only real consolation for men dying in war.

Because in studying its words we breathe the atmosphere of eternity."

Because its messages of hope have saved many from self-destruction.

Because it recognizes and upholds the dignity and individuality of every person.

Because those who would destroy it have not furnished any substitute of value.

The Child Who Is Too Shy

Inordinate shyness in a child may be due to lack of self confidence or security in the knowledge of his family's approval and affection. Too strict discipline and too much supervision may create the problem of a child who is ill at ease with others of his own age and who is exceedingly shy with adults. This situation is best dealt with by building up the child's good opinion of himself and by giving him reassurance of his parents' love and approval.
