CANADIAN LEGION NEWS

By D. R. Fleming

Now is the time!!! All the Legion members are going to have to work together and put over the best District Convention there has been in District "K". We are having a meeting with Comrade Ralph Bryson this Monday evening. Ralph is the Convention Committee Chairman. The meeting will be one of the committee chairmen. It is to arrange the jobs of each committee and who is going to be on the committees.

The next important thing to remember is the fact that the next regular monthly meeting that is scheduled for the 21st of this month has been changed to the 14th. It is very important that all legion members realize this and are present. When you get your reminder card you will know why. We want every member there.

The completion of the renovation job we have undertaken in our hall is getting close to its final moments. There are a lot of special tradesmen that deserve plenty of credit and they have been mentioned here quite frequently. Also deserving credit and not mentioned previously are the members that so regularly came out to work and did a tremendous job for so many hours of their spare time. They are too numerous to mention but we all know who they are and they know who they are and, so now fellas we are saying thanks very much you have done yourselves very proud and the branch as well.

That covers about everything for this week but don't forget any of it is all important that these reminders be remembered by each and everyone of you. Besides being remembered it should be adhered to. Thanks now and cheers fellas.

A WOMAN'S WORLD

The name of Viola R. Mac Millan is a familiar one to most people who the story of mining. Whether or not mining should be restricted to men alone could be a question, but the fact remains that this tiny, five foot attractive woman has proved her ability to hold her own in any phase of mining business, either in office work or in the field.

She carries on business for 16 and more hours a day. She is working at home in the office in her stylish penthouse and on the properties. She has no time or patience with social functions, unless they contribute to the one goal in her life — to further Canadian Mining.

In this she has intense interest Her energies are channeled into futherer prospectors welfare. She wants to set up a home for destitute prospectors, she fights for tax-exemptions for prospectors, and their chief ambition as president of the association is to effect the recognition of mining by a government proclaimed national Mining Day, preferably on the second Wednesday of March. That her services are appreciated and recognized was demonstrated three weeks ago, when the 1,700-member Prospectors and Developers Association unanimously re-elected Viola to her 13th consecutive term as president.

PRINCIPAL INGREDIENT

THE PRINCIPAL INGREDIENT in the cost of a product is labour—labour in mine or forest, in transportation, in factory and office, in wholesale and retail outlets. At every stage of production and distribution, from the extraction of the raw material to the ultimate sale of the finished product, cost is added in the form of wages.

Because wages are so all-important they must be right with relation to the services rendered. Higher wages are sensible only when accompanied by greater productivity. Disturb this balance and higher prices are inevitable. When prices get too high, sales go down. When sales go down there are fewer jobs.
