Mr. and Mrs. John Moore

WEDDING BELLS

Moore — O'Shaughnessy

The marriage of Miss Mary Loretto O'Shaughnessy and John Moore was solemnized in the Holy Cross Rectory, Saturday February 16, at three p.m., with Rev. Father L. Brunette officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy of Haileybury, and the late T. J. O'Shaughnessy, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore of Wemburne, England.

Given in marriage by her uncle, C. V. J. O'Shaughnessy of Cobalt, the bride wore for her wedding, a frock of champagne French lace over satin, with an off-the-shoulder neckline, and long sleeves, the full skirt in waltz length.

Her chapel veil of net was held by a matching chaplet of lace. Her bouquet was composed of Orange Delight roses.

Attending as bridesmaid was Miss Lina Francheseni of Deep River, who was dressed in emerald green tissue faille, styled with off-the-shoulder neckline and bouffant skirt. Her head-dress was a bandeau of yellow flowers and she carried yellow roses.

The best man was Leo Chivers of Haileybury. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother where she received the guests wearing blue crepe with black hat and accessories, with corsage of red roses.

For a wedding trip by plane to southern points, the bride wore a grey tweed suit, accented with black velvet, flowered hat and fur jacket.

On their return they will reside in Deep River. On their way to the reception the bridal party called on Mrs. A. H. Chesser, an old family friend, who had recently celebrated her ninety-fifth birthday.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mrs. J. Perry, and Miss Linda O'Shaughnessy both of Kirkland Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Laurin of Larder Lake.

Lorne Herbert visited in North Bay over the week-end.

They have now purchased a grand piano for the Schools Auditorium, a minor share of the cost of which was provided by the Students Council of this and last year.

The Board members are encouraged by the co-operation of the Chapter and the Students Council in financing projects for which school funds are not available, especially in these days of school financing. Students and teachers also, appreciate every effort made on their behalf and will find the piano a source of inspiration in their efforts to please a listening audience at school concerts.

The Board of Education received delivery of the piano recently and express their sincere appreciation to the Officers, Executive Members and Members of the Haileybury Chapter, who have so generously given of their time and efforts in fund raising projects to make such a gift and previous gifts possible.

The Students Council are congratulated for their energy and resourcefulness in providing their share of the cost of the piano, also for the purchase of many pieces of gymnasium equipment in the past. The Board express their thanks and appreciation to the Students Council.

They were attended by Mrs. H. L. Wiprecht and Mr. E. E. Smith of Cobalt.

The bride wore a Tweed suit with cinnamon brown accessories.

They left on the 11 o'clock train for Iroquois Falls, to visit with Mr. Ogden's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams. They will spend one week with them and then go on to Mrs. Ogden's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Brennan at Nipigon.

WEDDING BELLS

McPARLAND — HARGRAVE

The marriage of Janice Marjorie Hargrave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hargrave, and Earl Eric McParland, son of Mrs. McParland of Ferris and the late E. T. McParland, took place Saturday, February 9, at two o'clock, in the Haileybury United church with Rev. J. W. W. Wilkinson officiating.

The church was decorated with white and mauve 'mums' with white satin bows marking the guest pews.

Mrs. A. F. Herity of New Liskeard played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. A. H. Cooke of Haileybury who sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white net and lace over taffeta, fashioned in strapless style, with long sleeved bolero of lace.

The full skirt was in alternate tiers of net and lace. Her veil, which was of tulle illusion, was fingertip length, draped from a circlet of rhinestones. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by Miss Jacqueline O'Grady as maid of honor, wearing yellow brocade taffeta with scoop neckline and bouffant skirt, matching headdress and gloves.

The brides maids were Miss Wanita Smith, who wore a full-skirted gown of pink nylon tricotee with square neckline, matching stole, bandeau and gloves, and Miss Mary Craig, wearing pale blue net over taffeta, highlighted by darker blue bows on the skirt. All three attendants carried nosegays of yellow roses.

The best man was Gorman Brisson of Ferris. The ushers were the groom's brother, Russell McParland and the bride's uncle, Joseph Hargrave.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the Blue Room of the Hotel Haileybury, Mrs. Hargrave chose a gown of dark blue crystalaine with winter white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a suit of black wool with frosty white accessories and pink corsage.

Later the young couple left for a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and other southern points, the bride travelling in a costume of black wool, and avocado accessories. She wore the gift of the groom, a rhinestone necklace and matching earrings.

On their return they will make their home in Ferris.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. E. T. McParland, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McParland, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McParland, all of Ferris; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McParland, Mr. and Mrs. T. Read, Mr. and Mrs. E.
