WORDS OF THOUGHTS

BY BRUCE ANDERSON

BUT LET'S FACE IT...

Buying clothes is more fun, and no work!

HAVE your sewing box handy? You can make many gifts right out of it which will please ever so many on your Christmas list. Use these ideas or some which they might suggest. Little girls love petticoats and RECIPE OF THE WEEK Turkey-Corn Fudding (Serves 6) 3 eggs, beaten 1 small onion, minced 1 pimiento, chopped 1 can evaporated milk 1 1/2 cups diced turkey 1 cup whole kernel corn 2 tablespoons melted butter 1 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon pepper To beaten eggs, add onion, pimiento, undiluted milk, turkey, corn, butter and salt. Blend well. Pour into a well greased casserole and bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven in a pan of warm water for about 45 minutes or until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean.

they can be made from scraps of remnants. Use a pattern which will give you a frothy, billowing petticoat and it will rate cheers. Nylon, because of its quick drying and no ironing will please the mother of the girl.

Men and boys on your list? They will like those nice corduroy vests which give warmth and snap to their clothes. Bright colors are favored, and the sewing's easy.

Big girls and little will like those casual pixie hats or bonnets or gay bands, knitted or jersey all a-sparkle with sequins, beads and embroidery to keep their ears warm. Select a good pattern and then vary the size to include all on the list.
