NEWS FROM THE EVELYN SHOPPE

Going partying? Then expect to have a wonderful time in a "Jonathon Logan" as shown in "Seventeen."

In the shipment just in, a deep sapphire wool, sheath style, sleeveless, is lovely dressed up with jewelled pin or necklace, for party wear, and topped by its matching jacket with the tiny fur collar that fashion favors...

Now we must talk about the one in 60% Acrilan and 40% wool, to wash and wear, (this comes with washing instructions on the tag) in tweed effect, copper, brown and green tones, with soft pleats in the skirt, wide crusted cummerbund and matching jacket; a sheath in wool jersey by Miss Sun Valley, in warm sherry brown, simple, lines, stand-up vee neck collar framing the face.

A smart honey amber toned jersey in Woolcraft orlon and wool permanent pleated skirt with surplice front closing, good for the more mature figure; a deep forest green in size sixteen and a half, plain simple lines, but "Oh, so wearable." A deceptively simple black crepe has smooth lines with side shirring at the hipline, so flattering for the heavier figure.

We could go on and on as we carry sizes from the diminutive size seven and for the more mature figures, sizes 14 1/2 to 26 1/2; however, we must hurry on and tell you about our new shipment of Hedy Hill jewelry. This lovely hand made jewelry is so different. One set in rose copper, flower design joined with curved leaves, has matching earrings.

Another set of ring, bracelet and earrings is in silver filigree work with an Egyptian sacred Scarab in the center. One in particular, dull silver in scroll design with grey and deep blue Hematite stones, (bracelet, ring and earrings,) would look stunning worn with a sapphire blue dress.

Now that every woman MUST have an air of feminine elegance, her hats are of the utmost importance. "Smart" is the word for the soft crushable tams or turban type in velvet. These can be shaped or draped in many different ways and are bound to suit any face.

A white melusine with high folded and tucked crown and tiny brim is banded with smooth feathers in soft shades of gold, green, red and black. Another, of velour with wider brim, in Heavenly blue has a quill in blending tones, and a soft dusty rose tint in Melusine is in the popular beret shape.

From our large stock of gloves and scarves we can match almost any shade of hat.

So—Happy Shopping!!

Haileybury W.I. Plan Bake Sale and Supper

Methods of punishing children for their misdeeds provided answers to the roll call at the September meeting of the Haileybury Women's Institute held in the Legion Hall.

Most of the opinions expressed centered on depriving them of some favorite toy or privilege rather than corporal punishment.

It was decided to hold a bake sale with the proceeds to be donated to the Legion in appreciation of the use of the Hall for Institute meetings.

A pot luck supper was planned for Monday night, October 14, to be followed by a program at which husbands of the members will be guests.

Mrs. C. E. Miller was named as the delegate to attend the area convention being held in Matheson.

A draw for an African Violet donated by Mrs. Hagar was won by Mrs. W. Gibson.

The lunch committee for next month's meeting will be Mrs. W. Garbutt, Mrs. S. MacIntyre, Mrs. D. Hagar, Mrs. R. MacGillivray and Mrs. J. Dewson.

At the close of the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. R. Campbell, Mrs. I. Sadler, Mrs. H. Cooke, Mrs. R. McNaught, and Mrs. L. Fleming.
