W.I. Entertain Husbands Members of the Haileybury Women's Institute entertained their husbands at a pot-luck supper in the Legion Hall Thursday evening, October 10.

The attendance was not as large as had been hoped for owing to the prevalence of flu. Before the supper was served a few games of bingo were played and afterwards, Chinese checkers and Cribbage provided entertainment.

The ladies prize for Chinese checkers went to Mrs. R. McGilivray and the men's to Carl Clute.

In Cribbage the high scores were held by Mrs. P. Libby and John Hallworth, with Mrs. J. Gilkes and Lawrence Fleming getting the low counts.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James H. Norris The death occurred suddenly in Kirkland District Hospital early Thursday morning, following a lengthy illness of Mrs. James Norris of 566 Government Road, W., Chaput Hughes. She was seventy-one years of age.

Mrs. Norris was born at Brooke in Lanarath county near Perth, Ontario. She came to Haileybury with her family in 1907 and resided there until 1927, then resided in Cobalt before coming to Chaput Hughes in 1933.

Mrs. Norris is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mildred, Mrs. Ronald Drolet, 30-A Duncan Ave., Kirkland Lake. She was predeceased by her only son, Roy who was killed in action with the RCAF in France in 1942.

She was a member of the West End United Church, life member of the W.A., and also a member of the Shuniah Chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, Cobalt.

The body rested at the Symington Funeral Home, until time for the service at 1.30 p.m., at Kirkland Trinity United Church with Mr. Neville Reader, Layman of West End United Church officiating.

Pallbearers were R. Jackson Chas. Green, Al. Gardiner, H. Gardiner, George McGregor and Art Command.

Burial was in the family plot in Kirkland Cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended were: Mrs. Fred Woley of Smith Falls; Gerald White, of Perth; Mrs. Jean Blair, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker, North Bay; Mrs. May Dunn, Mr. Bill Cavanaugh and daughter Pricilla of Haileybury; Mrs. Ed. Welt of Schumacher; and Mrs. Robert Brocklebank of Timmins.

A special service was conducted in Symington Funeral Home Chapel Friday evening at 7.30 p.m., by the Ionic Chapter 116 of the Eastern Star of Kirkland

NEWS FROM THE EVELYN SHOPPE

Simply perfect for these lovely fall days are the pure wool boucle knitted dresses or suits by Lady Anne.

Choose a dress in Tropic red, with a wide ribbed band that belittles your waistline and repeats its self in an interesting arrangement at the neck. Or one in black, plaided in white, in a tailored style with a row of pearl buttons marching down the front opening to the waist.

Another, knitted in light and dark Sandalwood tweed effect, has a matching jacket, banded at the waist, to wear over the dress.

These knitted outfits are the answer to a traveller's prayer; they are absolutely uncrushable tops in style and a joy to wear.

Continuing in the woolen theme, the "Sheltie Mist" pure imported wool pullovers and cardigans are a boon to the sports-minded gals who have been asking for just this type of sweater. Perfect with the fall tweed skirts, they are sweeping the country. The colors? Light and dark charcoal, beige, reds and tartan greens to blend with any tweed.

The new 40-inch length coat with skirt to match is fashion news for the style conscious. Shown in bold black and white tweed, styled by Gordon and lined with their famous 4-Star Borgana in black, the collar and pocket flaps are highlighted by a binding of black silk braid. And best of all, the coat is just as much at home with dresses and other skirts as with its own.

And now to end the news on a lighter note, here are three items that I know you'll love; Little modernistic flower clusters with pearl centers to wear at blouse neck or suit lapel; a flat linked belt of hammered aluminum with a clever Egyptian design, and (most intriguing) little bandeau hats, some trimmed with feathers and some completely feathered. Smart! Smart!! Smart!!!
