NEWS FROM THE EVELYN SHOPPE

What could be more wearable and attractive than a tweed, or imported English flannel or broadcloth shirt by Gordon topped with a Cashmere sweater by "Pringle of Scotland" or Dorothea Cashmere?

What is Cashmere? Cashmere is the fine underdown of the Cashmere goats. Where does it come from? The Himalayan Mountains. What makes Cashmere so expensive?

The annual clip is small and the demand is very great. The area from which Cashmere is gathered is inaccessible and transportation primitive and costly.

Why are some Cashmeres more costly than others? There are many grades of raw Cashmere. Hence the best brands are more expensive.

To make your outfit completely luxurious why not top your sweater with a small mink collar, fashion's favorite fur.

A suggestion for the men with Christmas coming up. At Evelyn's we are pleased to serve you. Drop in and browse around.

spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. B. Silk and family. From there she is going to Van Nuys to spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Winnifred Slaughter.

At the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary Bingo held Tuesday evening November 5, Mrs. Wm. McFarlane was the lucky winner of the $100.00. This was won across the top of the card on the call of the fifteenth number.

Mr. Wilf Bailey attended a Progressive Conservative meeting in Toronto, Monday and Tuesday and will be interviewed in Timmins at 6:30 over TV November 11th.

ST. PAUL'S G.A.

With president Janet Camsell in charge, members of St. Paul's Anglican Girl's Auxiliary held their October meeting October 21, in the parish hall.

The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn and repeating of the G.A. Prayer. The Bible reading was taken by Jill Ross.

Plans were made for the selling of Christmas cards and novelties at the Christmas bazaar.

Plans were also made for a Halloween party which was held in the Parish hall Thursday evening, October 24.

Bobbing for apples, apples-on-a-string and other Halloween games were enjoyed under the leadership of the Auxiliary leader Mrs. J. Gilkes, assisted by Mrs. E. Young and Miss McQuaid.

The prizes for the best girls costume went to Carolyn Smallman for her impersonation of a "Little Old Lady," and Denny Herbert, as a "Calypso Dancer," won the boys prize.

W. BAILEY ATTENDS P. C. MEETING

W. Bailey has returned home after attending the Ontario Progressive Conservative meeting held at the Royal York Hotel, November 4th, and 5th.

On the first day, the sessions were set aside for the young Conservatives, an age group of 18-40 years. The Honourable Dave Fulton, Minister of Justice was the guest speaker at this time.

The following day, the Prime Minister Honourable Leslie Frost spoke of the progress of Ontario and the Conservative party.

The highlight of the convention was hearing the Prime Minister of Canada John Diefenbaker speak on the National Policy. Mr. Bailey had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Diefenbaker and talking with him.

A new slate of officers was elected for the Ontario Association.

Mr. Bailey would like to remind the people of Temiskaming that an important Conservative meeting will be held at the Strand Theatre in Kirkland Lake on Wednesday, November 13th, to select a candidate to carry the Progressive Conservative Banner in the next Federal election.
