OBITUARY CLAYTON W CAVERLY

With deep and sincere regret, the management of Hill-Clark-Francis announces the death of a vice-president, Mr. Clayton W. Caverly, suddenly, at Toronto, on Sunday November 10, in his forty-sixth year.

He was the beloved husband of Ethel C. (Benny) Caverly and dear father of Joanne, Douglas, Heather, Bruce, Paul and Kathy. Mr. Caverly joined Hill-Clark-Francis, Limited, at Timmins in 1935. His business ability brought well-earned promotion within the company and his friendly manner won him a host of friends.

At the time of his death, Clayton Caverly was vice-president of Hill-Clark-Francis and was president of their subsidiary lumber companies, John W. Fogg, Ltd., and A. E. Wicks, Ltd.

The body rested at his home, Dymond Crescent, New Liskeard with the funeral service taking place in St. Paul's United Church, Wednesday November 13, at three p.m.

Interment was in the New Liskeard Cemetery.

Mr. Hurst favored the gathering with selections on the piano.

FIRST BROWNIE PACK

On November 11th, the first Haileybury Pack of Brownies took part in the Remembrance Day ceremonies. We would like to thank Mrs. Hargraves very much for leading the marching. Our last meeting was held on November 4th, at 7 o'clock when Tawny Owl, Mrs. Parry, and assisted Tawny Pat Arnold took over in Brown Owl's absence. Our sincere thanks to Mrs. Arnold who was asked to talk about bulbs, and who showed us how to plant and care for a narcissus bulb.

Again we had the special Brownie ritual, opening with the Fairy Ring, holding a pow-wow closing with a Brownie hymn and prayer. Then we formed a Brownie tunnel. Tawny Owl has been given special attention to the Tweenies, all new Brownies who will soon be ready for enrollment.

Pat Arnold conducted the games and worked with the Golden Hand people. Again our thanks to Mrs. Hargrave for explaining the compass and helping pass tests.

The next meeting will be on Monday, the 18th.
