EDITORIAL

Temagami has just completed an extremely successful three day Carnival.

This affair, the brainchild of a group of civic-minded persons, was carried out in a town with a population of approximately 750 people, who are to be congratulated on their initiative and co-operation.

Thousands of dollars in publicity plus many visitors in a slack time was their reward as well as an incentive to do it again.

Haileybury has a population of well over two thousand, a beautiful situation on a well known lake, a ski club, a curling club and many other attractions and should make the limelight both in summer and winter.

Where, oh, where, is a Moses to lead its people out of the wilderness?

Ole 'Orrible's Column

Old H. H. has received a letter from Foster Rice. H. H. isn't certain whether it was intended for publication, or is a personal missive. Therefore if Foster wants it all printed, it shall be done. But in the meantime, we are reproducing the last paragraph of Foster's note. It reads:—"In the meantime, how about a few articles, either a little more for us, or considerably against, say the CCF, just so we will have no doubts of where the Haileybury paper stands."

Just so that Foster doesn't have any doubts, the publisher of this newspaper was Conservative when Annie Shipley was riding high. The publisher of this paper was Conservative when Caddy Taylor was representing Temiskaming. And if the Liberals are back in power in a year or two, as might happen, we will go on being Conservative.

But if we get a little cynical, it is because we see many of the smart boys climbing on the Tory bandwagon and being regarded as party faithful.

At the Conservative convention in Kirkland Lake, some of the VOTING DELEGATES were the same men that we had witnessed enthusiastically applauding C. D. Howe at the Liberal convention just six months before.

We are also old fashioned enough to believe that a Conservative believes in fair play, and we are proud that in the last election this paper had guts enough to attack the Liberals and CCF in our editorial columns, while we were extremely careful to give them an even break or better in our news columns. This contrasts somewhat with the attitude of the New Liskeard paper, which admitted in an editorial that it had kept its news coverage to a minimum because it didn't get much advertising from the politicians.

We intend to follow the same policy in the future, and if this should be closer to the principles of Sir John A. MacDonald than the principles of some of the fair weather Tories who are now flocking to the banner, we couldn't care less. In the meantime we are glad to hear that Foster has some fire in his eyes, and hope he will smite his foes hip and thigh, and the sooner the better.

The broomball boys are out in force, and broomball is now a substantial money maker for the Haileybury rink. There are five teams consisting of the Haileybury Hotel, OPP, Elks, and two teams from the mining school.

We understand that the cops had to be warned about using billies, while broken bottles had to be removed from the hips of the hotel squad. In the meantime, the broomball league is providing a lot of fun and entertainment.
