WEDDING BELLS CONTI - GAUVREAU

The altar of Holy Cross church was adorned with white mums Saturday, January 25, at eleven o'clock, for the marriage of Claudette Gauvreau...

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding, a full skirted gown of white velvet...

She carried red rose buds on a white Bible. She was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice Gauvreau as bridesmaid...

She wore a pink flower wreath with a tiny veil and carried a bouquet of pale yellow mums. Little Linda Dempster made a charming flower girl...

For her daughters' wedding and reception which followed at the Haileybury Curling Club, the bride's mother wore a gown of royal blue velvet...

As the groom's mother was unable to attend because of illness his sister, Miss Inez Conti, received in her stead...

Following a honeymoon spent in Rouyn, Mr. and Mrs. Conti will make their home in Haileybury.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were

Anglican W.A. Honor Holidaying Member

Mrs. John Hallworth was honored at a surprise party given by Mrs. G. L. Cassidy president of the Anglican W.A., at her home, Friday afternoon, January 24.

Twenty members of this organization gathered together to wish the guest of honor "Bon Voyage" on her forth coming trip to her birth place in England.

The unexpected arrival of her daughter, Mrs. Betty Junkala and granddaughter Cynthia added to the festivities. After outlining Mrs. Hallworth's untiring efforts in the W.A., and voicing gratitude for her work...

Following a gala celebration and rounds of good wishes, a most delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. C. Goodier poured tea ably assisted by Mrs. Shouldice, Mrs. Young, and Mrs. Brummell.

Shaving was originally a protective measure since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.

The word salary comes from "salarium" meaning salt money, since Roman soldiers received part of their pay in salt.
