NEWS FROM

THE EVELYN SHOPPE

Hats just arrived at the Evelyn Shoppe in the Citrus Fruit shades! The Citrus fruit shades are fashion firsts this year, in millinery dresses, gloves and printed shoes, in shades such as orange ice, lemon sherbet, and lime pariat, (this is a new and fascinating shade. Don't they sound good enough to eat? Along with mist blue, string beige, beauty pink and a vibrant red, they make one feel that a new hat is a must.

Of course, the Breton Sailor is out front in the fashion picture along with the draped turban. The beret or tam takes on new glamour in a swirled print of orange ice and lemon, with matching scarf. Gloves just in, in all the most delectable spring shades will match or blend with any costume.

The print dresses arriving are in swirl patterns, geometric and flowered designs. Bright blues, string beige and brown with apricot. One stunning dress in uncrushable splash print of blue, violet and yellow, has a soft crushed cummerbund, fullness in the skirt and three-quarter sleeves. Perfect for now under fur coats and later, on the street.

A chemise dress, slightly fitted thro' the torso with low folded band defining the hip line, in navy and white print, is so fresh and spring-like, it makes one feel the chemise is here to stay. However, no one in the fashion trade expects the new silhouette to drive our beloved shirt waist dress or easy flared skirt out of the picture.

As in a piece of music or a book, one classic does not succeed another, it stands alongside it. So we have a style to suit every figure. However, as the head buyer for "Saks", Fifth Avenue, New York, said "we have found most fashion-conscious women want at least one chemise dress."

But the classic style will always be with us. (Noticed that the Duchess of Windsor recently paid a thousand dollars for one!) However, the Evelyn Shoppe can sell you a similar copy for $29.95. "Ou, La, La!"

A shipment of the fabulous BanLon sweaters is in. Many of the new shades can be washed in the washing machine and come out like new. With one of our new toned beige wrap-around or fine permanent pleated skirts, these are perfect for business or social activities.

Guides and Brownies Entertain Mothers at First Local Banquet

A very successful evening was held in the basement of the United Church, Haileybury, on Monday February 24th, 1958, when 122 persons attended the first combined Girl Guide and Brownie Mother and Daughter banquet that has been held in Haileybury.

The Guides had decorated the tables in blue and gold, the head table featuring blue and gold candles flanking a centerpiece of cones and evergreens. The hall, too, had attractive Guide and Brownie emblems accenting their colors.

Miss Linda Clarke, Captain, opened the evening by proposing a toast to the Queen.

Following the dinner District Commissioner Mrs. D. Herbert introduced head table guests, Mrs. A. David, Cochrane, Mrs. S. Sitarz, New Liskeard, Mrs. H. Doran, Mrs. J. Seymour, Mrs. Parry, Mrs. G. Lemay, Miss Pat Arnold, Miss Suzanne Lecky, Miss Linda Clark and Miss Marilyn White. And then all Guides and Brownies introduced themselves and their mothers. Guide Mary Whelan thanked members of the Local Association for providing the delicious dinner served, and Brownie Helen Hennessy proposed a toast to the mothers. Mrs. G. Hennessy responded.

Divisional Commissioner Mrs. H. Doran then introduced the special guest of the evening, Area Commissioner Mrs. A. David of Cochrane, Ontario. Mrs. David interested everyone with her account of different Guiding activities in her large area which extends from Temagami to Moose Factory and from Kearns to Kapuskasing.

There are about 1,800 Guides and Brownies in this area. Mrs. David also made special mention of Thinking Day which was last Saturday February 22nd and is honoured in memory of the late Lord Baden Powell, founder of the Guide movement all over the world. Mrs. G. Lemay thanked the guest speaker.

Following the dinner, a Flying Up ceremony took place. Guides were in charge of Miss Clarke assisted by Miss Marilyn White, and Brownies in charge of Miss Suzanne Lecky, Brown Owl.

The girls stood in formation while Mrs. David and Mrs. Doran entered the Fairy Ring and presented wings to the following Brownies who had obtained their Golden Hand badge before their 11th birthday. They were: Camilla Vezina, Rosemary Robinson and Diane Dean. Each of these girls in turn left the Brownie ring and were welcomed into the Girl Guide Horse-shoe.

A sing song was then enjoyed by all the girls, and the evening closed with the singing of Taps.
