

Senior golfers will play at Haileybury August 4

In less than a month it will be just ten years since the second annual Northern Ontario Seniors' Golf Association championships were played at the Haileybury Golf Club. This year, the eleventh annual classic will again take place in Haileybury, on August 4th and 5th.

The executive have spared nothing in making the greens and fair comparable to the best in the north. President J. C. Murphy, while particularly pleased with the standard of the course, points out that Haileybury has always held its own an exacting layout.

Roy Herne of Sudbury, who won the championship two years ago at Timmins and again last year at Sault Ste. Marie, will again, at 64, be defending his laurels at Haileybury.

Among the others who are expected to be playing are

Ben Merwin of Idylwyld Club, Pierson Greene of Sudbury, Bill Kenny and George Honer, both of Kirkland Lake James Hughes of Idylwyld and W.T. "Shorty" Greene of Sudbury. Then if the Gateway to the North can induce Howard Teskey and Tom Hawkins to re-enter the lists, the battle should be on.

There is keen competition all down the line, with four age divisions, 50 to 54, 55 to 59, 60 to 64 and over 65, as well as Putting and approaching, and an Open Handicap for non prize winners.

All you have to do is admit you are over 50 give your entry to your club secretary or send it direct to J. Lewis Brown, N.O.S.G.A. Secretary, P.O. Box 6, Lockerby, Ont. wangle a trip to Haileybury over the Civic Holiday weekend and fraternise with some of the finest fellows still playing golf and still sidestepping Old Father Time.

Englehart celebrates its Semi-Centennial in August

The Publicity Committee of the Englehart Semi-Centennial arranged for pupils in the local Public and High Schools to write essays on the History of Englehart. The entries from the Public School have been judged and the judges awarded first prize to Sandra Mills; second prize to Nancy Bradt and third prize to Judy Barstead.

The awards to the winners of the High School have not been announced as yet.

It is expected that presentations will be made to the various winners at a suitable time during the Semi-Centennial celebrations which commence August 1st and continue through Monday, August 4th.

One of the features of the Englehart Semi-Centennial celebrations which be a museum of local interest. This museum will be opened on Friday, August 1st, Saturday, August 2nd and Monday, August 4th

It is anticipated that visitors to town as well as the residents will recall past days from the exhibits.

Also located in the museum building will be a refreshment corner where coffee, tea and food will be available. For the ardent coffee drinker there will be freshly ground coffee from a coffee mill which was in use many years ago, and is now the property of Mrs. Robert Tracy, of Englehart.

For the sports-minded visitors and citizens. arrangements have been completed for a Fastball game between the Montreal Canadian fastball team and Joe Dash' team of Kirkland Lake. This game will be played at the Community Centre Ball Field Saturday afternoon, August 2nd. Hockey fans will see their favourite Montreal hockey players in action.

Mrs. Lillias Gibbins, Chairman of the Parade Committee advises that there will be a parade on Friday, August 1st to start festivities and a second parade will be held on Monday, August 4th.

Monday, August 4th. will see aquatic sports being sponsored by the Kinsmen Club at the Lee Swimming Pool in the morning. During the afternoon a field day program will be sponsored by the Canadian Legion and a fireworks display will set off at dark. To wind up the day a dance will be held in the Curling Rink at night.
