The CBC Symphony A new plan

A new plan has just been announced for the 1958-9 season of the CBC Symphony Orchestra, recognized as being among the finest in North America.

The orchestra will give public concerts in Toronto each Sunday afternoon throughout the fall and winter. The concerts will be broadcast on the Trans-Canada network and will be of 90 minutes' duration.

There will be a regular host, and an intermission during which distinguished personalities in the world of music will be interviewed.

Invitations have already gone out to a number of world-famous conductors. Sir Malcolm Sargent has accepted the CBC's invitation to direct one concert. Word is awaited from Sir Adrian Boult, Josef Krips and Pierre Monteux, to name three others whom the CBC hopes to engage. Canadian conductors being invited to direct the orchestra include Sir Ernest MacMillan, Heinz Unger, Alexander Brodt, Boyd Neel and Ettore Mazzoleni.

From time to time distinguished instrumentalists and singers will be heard with the orchestra.

Details as to the Toronto concert hall to be used, and the arrangements for free public attendance, will be announced later.

If you wish to have your piano tuned or repaired by Leonard Morin, call Mrs. Neil Turnbull, New Liskeard, Phone 1315. Leonard Morin is bi-lingual and has thirteen years experience in piano repairing and tuning.
