CONNELLY - RICE

St. Andrew's United church, Haileybury, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Kathleen Iland Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Foster Rice, and Gordon Lyman Connelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Connelly of Haileybury.

The church was decorated for the occasion with baskets of pink and white peonies and orange blossoms.

The ceremony took place on Saturday afternoon, July 19th., at three o'clock, with Rev. T. F. Risdon officiating. The wedding music was played by Mrs. A. F. Herity of New Liskeard who accompanied Miss Marilyn Fleming of New Liskeard who sang "The Wedding Hymn."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, featuring a bateau neckline at the front, dipping to vee in the back. The sleeves were bracelet length. Her finger-tip was held by a tiara of pearls and carried a bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by Miss Lena Madore, wearing blue, and Miss Nancy Edey, in pink. Their waltz length gowns were fashioned alike of bengaline, the round necklines dipping to a vee in the back, the sleeves cut to three-quarter length.

They wore tint feather hats to match the color of their gowns and carried bouquets of roses, Miss Madore's in yellow, Miss Edey's in pink.

Little Sharon Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross, of Thornloe, made a charming flower girl, wearing a bouffant frock of pale pink organdy with matching bonnet. She carried a basket of pastel summer flowers.

Groomsmen were Sheldon Dobbs and Charles Camsell, and the ushers, Ronald and Robert Rice.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Haileybury Curling Club, Mrs. Rice wore a sheath dress in powder blue with matching duster and white hat and accessories.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Hamilton, the bride chose a boxy suit of grey tweed with pink and grey feathered hat and matching accessories.
