Foreign Students See America

A tour of foreign and American students, organized to promote international good will and understanding visited Washington, D.C. and other historical shrines throughout the east recently. More than 100 students representing 12 nations participated in the International Student Cavalcade which originated at the University of Minnesota. Senator Humphrey (Minn.) greeted the students on the capitol steps. In New York, tour buses and mobile kitchen unit were parked across street from TV studio so that cameras could pick up students being served breakfast for Dave Garroway audience. Garroway joined students for breakfast (center photo). Kitchen trailer was equipped with LP-Gas (liquefied petroleum gas) burners so that frozen meals for the large group of hungry students could be prepared quickly at each stop. In bottom photo, Sen. Thye (Minn.) enjoys luncheon chat with student. Behind them and attached to trailer are cylinders of LP-Gas—a familiar sight in suburban, town and rural areas where the fuel is used in many homes.

CANADIAN PLACE NAMES

EDMONTON — In 1794 the Hudson's Bay Company had a Fort built twenty-five miles below the present site. It was named by George Sutherland who built it, after Edmonton River, London, England, the birthplace of his clerk John Pruden. The name was retained when the Fort was rebuilt, after destruction by the Blood Indians in 1807, on the site of the present City.

SASKATOON — The name is derived from the Cree word Mis-sask-quah-too-mina or Mis-sask-a-too-mina, a name given to a berry, used in the making of buffalo pemmican, found in profusion in the vicinity.

WINNIPEG — From the Cree words Win-murky and Nipiy-water.

TORONTO — Various meanings have been assigned to the name which is of Indian origin "A place of meeting", "Trees in the Water", "Lake Opening", all more or less conjectural. The name has also been traced to that of "Atrionta", chief of the Arendaronons and to the word "Tarontorai" meaning "between the lakes". The name "Tarantou" appears for the first time on Sanson's map of 1656.

At its meeting Monday night, Bucks council voted in favor of holding a cocktail vote in the next municipal elections. The vote will be held at the request of Bill Pape, who recently opened a steak house at the north end of the township.
