Mr. and Mrs. Adelard Fauvelle are pictured following their recent wedding in Haileybury.

TRESIDDER - DUVAL
St. Theresa's Church Cobalt, decorated with baskets of summer flowers, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Yolande, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zenon Duval, Cobalt, and Ernest Tresidder, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.T. Tresidder, Cobalt at 10 a.m. on Monday, August 4. Rev. Father Lemay officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely in her waltz length wedding dress of white chiffon over taffeta. The fitted bodice, softly shirred over the shoulders, rounded yoke neckline, very full bouffant skirt, with two floating panels at the back. Her fingertip veil, imported from Czechoslovakia, was of plain tulle, with appliqued medallions and tiny pearls. Headdress was a round tiara of pearls and rhinestones to which veil was attached.

She wore her mother's engagement gift to her, a gold pendant set with Amythyst and pearls and tiny pearl earrings.

She carried a nosegay of red roses. Her bridesmaid her sister, Miss Rhea Duval, whose gown was fashioned in the same style as that of the bride, in ice blue, with blue open crown headdress - short mittens - and blue satin shoes. She carried segay of yellow roses.

Ernest Scully attended the groom.

The ushers were Robert Boissonneault and Thomas Kennelly.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Cobalt Legion Lounge.

The bride's mother received the guests in a printed chiffon dress with white accessories and corsage of roses.

The bridegroom's mother also received in a powder blue silk print dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses.

On their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, and points south, and east, the bride's travelling costume was a printed sheath dress with matching orange ice linen duster, and white accessories. She wore a corsage of orange delight roses. The young couple are taking up residence on Nickel Street.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were, Mr. and Mrs. George Tresidder and children Elliot Lake, Mr. and Mrs. E.T. Trebilcock, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Trebilcock, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McPhail and children, all of Timmins, Mr. and Mrs. G. Webber and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harris, all of Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Charbonneau, Haileybury. Glen McKinnon Toronto, and Mrs. Laure Brissette, Hull, Que.

Are you wondering just WHAT the 1958 fashion look for fall will be? Silhouettes will be unrestrained but with a suggestion of the figure beneath, a gently bloused look at waist and hip with easy belts or bands.

Skirt lengths are shorter; loose Empire effects with bows and bias banding of low-placed belts for the long waisted look.

And we have something to suit every figure. These are arriving dailey, in all the textured wools and in such lovely shades as spice pumpkin, Lapis blue, Tarentine brown, willow green, red glow and the neutrals. A wool dress is a must in your fall wardrobe, so make your selection early.

Then top it off with a velvet, melusine or velour hat, gloves and matching scarf. Buy your fall ensemble at the Evelyn Shoppe and know you are smartly dressed for all occasions.

And remember, a deposit will hold anything on our lay-away plan.
