LETTER TO THE EDITOR

179 Lock St.
Peterboro.

Dear Sir,

Thank you very much for the pictures and papers re. Old Gertie.

Your little write up was very good but there is one error.

You were probably misinformed about the breakdown which was very minor. I had everything fixed in a short time and Old Gertie went through to New Liskeard on her own power like a thoroughbred.

The old girl is good for many years with a little care.

Please correct the error in your paper at a future date.

Ed Payne.

Mrs. Lloyd MacMillan was hostess at L. chlee Lodge, Bass Lake, to the members of the Gideons, on Saturday September 13th. About 36 were present

THE BIBLE TODAY

The world Press and Radio is full of dark and foreboding news today. Some of it is about the little island of Cyprus- the scene of the Apostle Paul's activities and missionary journeys.

Yet even in this chaotic little island God's redeeming Spirit is at work. Significantly enough the Bible Society has a Colporteur there whose name is Barnabas. He operates from a new Bible House only built in the last few years, and he is welcomed wherever he goes, as he carries the precious Word in Turkish, Greek and English, to the inhabitants of that strife-torn little spot.

Since God's Word always accomplishes what He wills, in the activities of the Bible Society and its faithful servants, we may confidently expect that the "light will break forth" in Cyprus on His own good time.

"I'll never drive again as long as I live!"

That's the vow Fred Smith took when he learned the youngster he had run over had died as a result of the injuries. Fred's conscience was tortured by the feeling that a child had died as a result of his actions. He tore up his driver's license, and has never been behind the wheel of a car since.

There's only one way to avoid Fred Smith's nightmarish situation. That's always to watch for children on the road.
