Evelyn Shoppe

The Evelyn Shoppe has not forgotten the ladies who are just longing to exchange a dust mop for a curling broom, and this week the Shoppe is gay with all sorts of wearing apparel for the curling enthusiast.

Colorful plaid jacket lined with the ultimate in interlining for greater warmth and less weight. This Curon interlining is a full thirty-five per cent more effective as an insulator than the finest animal fibre textiles weighing five times as much. These come in the new shorter length, in green, red or blue plaids.

Then there are the "Bulky" sweaters such as Bulky Shag wool, Burley-Knit, 110 per cent Botany wool in a short coat sweater, Bulky knit turtle necks by Lansea, — just any kind your heart desires, and they come in every shade and hue, including jade and forest green, Como blue, red, turquoise and the old standby, beige. Then, too, there are curling shirts in plain, plaid and striped Viyella flannel, and curling gloves with leather palms.

And when the curling 'Spiels start, you'll need a dress for the social side of them, so ask to see the one in black pure silk faille, with a shirred bodice of chiffon, just perfect as a dinner dress, or with the addition of the short buttoned jacket, it is transformed into an afternoon or street dress. Then there is a blouson type, fashioned of midnight blue pure wool in a knitted tweed effect, with fringe accents. Or a two piece outfit in Forest Glow fine wool jersey, showing intriguing back interest.

And to end a busy day in perfect comfort, you'll need a pair of flanellette pyjamas or a nightie from the new shipment just received this week!
