

Lady Curlers Start Crazy Quilt Draw

A unique draw is one of the high lights of the Ladies' Curling Club which started this week. It is called a Crazy Quilt Draw and is being played for points instead of games.

Each member of the rink has a turn at skipping two ends during each game and is proving very interesting. It gives the leads and seconds an idea of judging the fine points of the game, where to place the broom and how the ice draws and other necessary things a skip is supposed to know.

The personnel of the rinks are with position as named in order, skip, vice, second and lead.
