Curling

In the play off game of the afternoon rink in the second competition, Gert MacArthur's rink won over Ev. Harrison on Monday evening.

The next game will be between the MacArthur and McFarlane rinks, Wednesday evening, February 11th.

Three rinks from the local club attended the Visitors Day in New Liskeard last Saturday. While none got into the prizes all enjoyed the curling and good fellowship. A rink from Englehart took first prize and one from Virginiatown consolation and also for the rink coming the farthest distance. The personnel of the rinks from Haileybury-Cobalt Club were in the order named, skip, vice, second and lead. Dorothy Russell, Betty Doran, Helen Tuer and Joan Hargrave, Edna Carriere, Marion Levely, Girdle Rouse and Grace McRea, Adele Maloney, Bev Richards, Pat Dolan and Bunny Coull.

The death of R. D. Cumming early Sunday morning came as a shock to the district. Accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mr. Cummings was on his way to spend a months holiday touring the United States.

Miss Rita Catudal spent the past week-end visiting with Mrs. Clifford Bigelow in Lorrain Valley.

Ag. Societies Convene in Feb.

The Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies is holding its Annual Convention at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, February 25 and 26 with an excellent program dealing with matters of interest to its members.

On the morning of February 25 there will be a joint session of men and women delegates from both larger and smaller fairs. One of the highlights will be a panel on Fighting Words which will be headed by Norm Garriock of the CBC.

Elmer McKinnon, President of the A and B Fairs Section will be the chairman in the afternoon when topics of interest to the larger fairs will be discussed. These include: Dramatizing Exhibits; Getting the Most from Radio and Television; Show Ring Manners and Judging Problems; and Review of Federal Support to Fairs and Exhibitions.

During the evening the winning slides in the Colored Photographic Competition will be shown and prizes amounting to $500 presented by the Canadian National Exhibition.

On Thursday, February 26, there will be talks by fair officials on Entertainment Programs for Fairs; Making Revenue Exceed Expenditures; Secondary Schools in Fair Activities; Making the Most of What We Have; and Ontario's Farm Accident Survey.

The sessions for women delegates begin at 3 p.m. on the 25th and will continue for the full day on the 26th. Mrs. Wm. Dawon of Tillsonburg and Miss Charlotte McCullough of Georgetown, President and Secretary respectively of the Women's Section, have planned discussions on a number of timely topics including: Handicrafts, of which there will be an attractive display; Junior Activities and School Work; Food Classification; and Arranging of Exhibits including Flowers.

The Annual Banquet will be held the evening of the 26th and will mark the closing of the Convention. Guest speaker will be Dr. Richard D. Jones, National Executive Director, Canadian Council of Christians and Jews. Entertainment following the banquet will include acts suitable for fairs and exhibitions.

Society members from New Liskeard and Englehart will attend the convention.

It takes a raft of friends to keep some people afloat.
