

Across the Kitchen Table

By MRS. MAC

It always pleases me when I get help with this column and this week my thanks go to Mr. R. F. Richardson, Russell Street, for his assistance.

It seems that a Canadian Curling rink from Regina, travelled to Bonny Scotland, beat the Scots at their own game and brought back to Canada the International Curling Championship. This rink was composed of Ernie and Garnet Richardson, brothers, with Wes. and Arnold Richardson, their cousins, (from different families), and all four of them are nephews of Mr. Richardson. Naturally, he is quite proud of them, and who could blame him?

The clipping shown me by Mr. Richardson told the story of the opening game in the five-game series, which was played against the Caledonian title-holder, Wullie Young and his rink. The Richardsons built up a 4-0 lead before the Scottish players were able to count one on the fourth end. Young, four-time winner of the British Open Curling Championship, was lying four in the third end when Ernie Richardson drew in for shot. Young missed a take-out attempt, losing a chance to move into a 4-3 lead.

The Canadians built up a 7-1 lead after six ends before Scotland counted another one. Young finally scored three on the tenth, but the Canadians came back in the eleventh when Ernie took out Young's shot-rock with his final stone to count three and the game ended 12-6 in favor of Canada.

This game was played in Edinburgh and the Richardson rink went on to win the other games, two of them being played in Perth. The average age of the two brothers and their cousins is twenty-seven and a half years.

Among the many printed articles which are received in this office, some good, some bad, even as you and I, was on regarding National Wildlife Week, a tribute to the late Jack Miner. On the envelope containing the articles was "Jack Miner's Testimony", which I thought was so good that it should be shared. Here it is:

Jack Miner's Testimony
The Lord is my Guide and Teacher, I will not get lost:

He makes my heart a receiving station for His wireless:

He sits down beside me in the pathless woods and opens up his book of knowledge:

He turns the leaves very slowly that my dimmed eyes may read His meaning.

He makes the trees I plant to grow, and flowers to arch my path with their fragrant beauty; about May 1st in the Cobalt area.

The president suggested that a fireworks display be held in Cobalt to celebrate the 24th of May holiday, perhaps through the co-operation of all local service clubs. The matter will be looked into further.

Arrangements are being made for a carload of children to be taken to Kirkland Lake for eye treatment.

After the regular meeting adjourned a social hour was enjoyed and films entitled "The Nuremberg Trials" and the "F.B.I." were shown.

St. Patrick's Tea

The C.W.L. of St. Patrick's Church held their St. Patrick's Day Tea and bake sale at the Community Hall on Tuesday, March 17th. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. O'Rourke.

Irish Eyes were smiling with admiration as well as all others who noted the tea table. A lovely lace cloth was decorated with the traditional Irish motifs and centred with tall green candles and a floral arrangement of green and white carnations, baby mums and interspersed with shamrocks.

Mrs. Albert Riley was the convener for the tea. Individual tables were placed throughout the room, each one arranged with green candles centred on black hats.

During the afternoon, Mrs. C. V. J. O'Shaughnessy and Mrs. H. A. Dunning poured tea, and serving the guests were Mrs. A. Riley Mrs. E. Smith and Mrs. D. Thompson, Mrs. A. Murphy and Mrs. C. Vezina replenished the cake and sandwich plates. Mrs. M. Sutherland was in charge of the kitchen duties.

Mrs. A. Fraser played the piano during the afternoon adding to the enjoyment of the guests. Tickets were sold on a lovely St. Patrick's Day Cake and Mrs. Leo O'Shaughnessy and Mrs. M. Cunningham were in charge of the bake table. Mrs. B. Conroy sold Penny Sale tickets.

A small table covered with an Irish Linen cloth held a tall silk hat and shillelagh, replacing the "tea bowl". The linen cloth belonged to Mrs. H. A. Dunning and was a gift from Ireland.

In the evening a bingo and penny sale were held.

Oddfellows Meet

The Oddfellows of Lodge No. 379 met Thursday, March 12 with Brother A. Fleming, Past Grand, in the chair. The usual business procedure was dealt with and some discussion was held on a proposed visit at the latter end of March to South Temiskaming. It was left open pending further word from Temiskaming Lodge. About 17 members were present. The C.P. & T. bingo was held March 19th in the Community Hall, and all members who helped at the bingo were excused from lodge on that night. Cash draws for $50 and $15 were held at the bingo. Lodge closed at 9 p.m. and a few hands of euchre were played.

Senior Ca-Bo-Gi Club

The Senior Ca-Bo-Gi Club held their regular meeting Monday, March 16th at the home of Rev. T. Kavanagh. The meeting opened with prayer, followed by roll call and minutes.

The president, Tom Killoran thanked the members for helping at the recent bingo which was a success. The treasurer Cy. Bazinet gave the financial report. It was announced that the religious pamphlets had been received. They were looked over and will be on display in the church soon.

gives me dominion over the fowls of the air and they honk and sing their way to and from my home.

Yea, He has brought me up from a barefooted underprivileged boy to a man respected by millions of people, and I give Him all the credit and praise whenever, wherever and forever.

Another of his sayings that bears repeating was, "Don't put your tongue in high until you get your brain started".
